Requires the Use of the D20 Modern Core Rulebook, Published by Wizards of the Coast

This product is fully compatible with D20 Modern, as well as the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game, and is suitable for use with Otherverses America, Psi-Watch, Galaxy Command/Heavy Future and even some Black Tokyo campaigns.

Technology Unleashed introduced dozens of new, high-technology concepts to the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game. New weapons, new player races, new spells and gadgets. One thing the massive sourcebook lacked was new magical items: the intersections of new technology and ancient traditions.

The Occult-Tech Armory is the first in a series of short and mid-length PDF sourcebooks adding some high sorcery to your high tech. The items found in the Occult-Tech Armory are fairly generic, and might be encountered by spacers and adventurers anywhere in the multiverse. Future sourcebooks in the Techno-Magic Unleashed line will explore setting specific magic items, but the items found in Occult-Tech Armory can turn up in any of Otherverses Games' campaign worlds and far beyond.

NEW TECHNOLOGY

Any weapon, piece of armor or bit of equipment mentioned in this sourcebook that is not found in either the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game SRD or the D20 Modern SRD can be found in Technology Unleashed (Otherverses Games, 2016). If you don't recognize some new piece of gear, look at Technology Unleashed first.

OTHER SPELLS

If you see an unfamiliar spell in a magic item description with its name written in red text, this new spell is fully detailed in Technology Unleashed (Otherverses Games, 2016). Original spells with their origins in a different Otherverses Games product will be superscripted for easy reference.

C = Choicer Magick Book One

E1 = Enchantments of Black Tokyo

E2 = Enchantments of Black Tokyo, Vol. 2 (upcoming)

H = Techno-Magic Unleashed: The Heavy Grimorie (upcoming)

There will be relatively few spells from these secondary sources in this sourcebook. If you don't see any such notation about a spell's point of origin, it can be found in the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game SRD somewhere.

ITEM PRICING

Magic items here have both a GP value and a Purchase DC. The item's Purchase DC was calculated by converting the item's GP cost to modern wealth using a 1 GP: 1 US dollar: 1 galactic credit: approximately 100 yen ratio.

This conversion has its problems, especially with the cost of mundane items, such as groceries, making them unrealistically expensive compared to fantasy items. However, few campaigns track the characters' grocery budgets closely enough for this to matter. Also, the real world exchange rate between dollars and yen is much higher than 1 dollar:100 yen, usually hovering somewhere around 1:200 yen circa late 2015, but this ratio is designed to simply allow GMs to add two zeroes to the price of anything in yen if it is priced in another source in dollars.

This pricing conversion is used in all Otherverse Games products.

WONDROUS ITEMS AND MAGICAL JEWELRY

Armor Assembly Forge

Aura strong conjuration CL 18th

Slot none Price 252,000 gp (DC 37)

Weight architectural feature (12+ tons)

The Armor Assembly Forge is a massive mechanical fabrication unit that completely fills a cavernous, metallic chamber. Dozens of articulated arms and assembly tendrils spring to life when a designated user steps into a central dais within the Armor Assembly Forge, rapidly building a gleaming set of powered armor around the user.

Once per day, as a full round action, the Armor Assembly Forge can assemble a set of Grade II Powered Armor around the user. This armor has a Flight speed of 90 ft (average). The Grade II Powered Armor remains active for one hour after donning, or until the wearer dismisses the armor as a move action. The Armor Assembly Forge's creator sets the appearance of the conjured armor; each time the armor is conjured it appears with the same basic appearance.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, greater call powered armor

Cost 126,000 gp (DC 35)

Boots, Street Fighter's

Aura faint transmutation CL 5th

Slot feet Price 6,750 gp (DC 24) Weight 6 lbs (pair)

These heavy duty, dingy black steel toed Doc Martens are designed to stomp in skulls. Depending on the politics of the wearer, the laces are black, red or white.

While wearing Street Fighter's Boots, the character is treated as if possessing the Improved Unarmed Strike and Power Attack feats. If they already possess both feats, they may instead choose a single Combat feat they meet the prerequisites for, gaining that feat as a bonus feat as long as the boots are worn.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, bull's strength

Cost 3,375 gp (DC 22)

Boots, Traceur's

Aura faint transmutation CL 5th

Slot feet Price 4,320 gp (DC 23) Weight 4 lbs (pair)

These high-topped, split-toe tabi are designed for support and comfort at high speeds and when doing really, really dangerous shit high above the city.

Traceur's Boots provide the wearer with a +3 competence bonus on the following skill checks: Acrobatics, Climb, Stealth. These bonuses increase to +5 in urban areas with a population of at least 1 million.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, cat's grace

Cost 2,160 gp (DC 20)

Boots, Wirewalk

Aura moderate evocation (electrical) CL 5th

Slot none Price 6,360 gp (DC 24) Weight 4 lbs (pair)

Wirewalk Boots are futuristic silver-blue sneakers with a complex and highly polished circuitry pattern on the bulky rubber soles. Static crackles over the silver aglets at the end of each lace.

While wearing Wirewalk Boots the wearer is treated as if possessing the Up the Walls feat, as long as the surface the wearer is running along has live electrical current behind or beneath it. In addition, the wearer can use electrical transition up to 3x/day.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, cat's grace, electric transition

Cost 3,180 gp (DC 22)

Bio-Courier's Cooler

Aura moderate conjuration and necromancy CL 9th

Slot none Price 3,600 gp (DC 22) Weight 5 lbs

This subtly rounded red and silver chest is about eighteen inches to a side, and is cool to the touch. The cooler can be carried either with a top-mounted ergonomic handle, or worn as a back pack thanks to adjustable straps.

The Bio-Courier's Cooler functions as a handy haversack. In addition, the Bio-Courier's Cooler preserves any non-living organic matter placed within indefinitely, via gentle repose. The Cooler will only open at the touch of the creature that placed an object within and sealed the lid.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, arcane lock, gentle repose, secret chest

Cost 1,800gp (DC 20)

Charging Holster

Aura faint conjuration CL 3rd

Slot none Price 6,500 gp (DC 24) Weight negligible

This black nylon thigh holster is designed to accommodate light energy weapons of all sorts, and has hexagonal plastic snaps.

Any one handed energy weapon stowed within the Charging Holster has its energy cell completely recharged, as by the spell, infinite ammunition.

Similar Items

The Reloading Holster is a concealable shoulder rig that functions identically, save that it fully reloads any one handed ballistic weapon rather than energy weapons.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, infinite ammunition

Cost 3,250 gp (DC 22)

Convenience, Occult-Tech

Aura faint transmutation CL 1st

Slot none Price 250 gp (DC 13) Weight 2 lbs or so, at most

These occult-tech devices are as useful for a college student moving into a new dorm as they are to criminals misusing the tech to instantly clean a crime scene. Occult-tech Conveniences offer anybody who can afford the price a useful minor magical effect. There are a variety of these devices available, but the three below are most common.

Occult-Tech Conveniences usually take the form of small, white plastic wands or tiny, futuristic household devices. All Conveniences make use of some aspect of the prestidigitation spell, and each can be used once per day. These useful little devices are everywhere, in one form or another!

Nano-Chef: Simply by placing all the ingredients in a container large enough to hold the resulting dish, touching the device with the Convenience and speaking the dish's name aloud, this Convenience produces a healthy, well-cooked meal in seconds.

Nano-Maid: Holding this Convenience aloft thoroughly cleans any 20x20 ft area, as well as a team of janitors could, in about an hour of work. Touching it to a humanoid user's body cleans and refreshes that person, as if thoroughly bathing.

Nano-IT: Touching this device to any computer performs routine maintenance, such as virus scans, defragging, as well as thoroughly cleaning the device. Sometimes the hacker spark spell is substituted in the construction process.

Nano-Valet: Touching this Convenience to a set of worn clothes straightens, freshens and cleans them, as well as performing minor tailoring and simple repairs. Sometimes the inspection ready spell is substituted in the construction process, making it only usable on military uniforms.

Cloning Banks

Aura strong necromancy CL 15th

Slot none Price 725,000 gp (DC 41) Weight 8-10 tons
Cloning Banks are massive industrial flesh fabrication units. Enormous glass tubes filled with luminous aquamarine fluids are maintained by massive banks of medi-computers. Each Cloning Bank has 6 individual cloning tanks.

Each tank can be used to clone a single Medium or Large creature as per the clone spell. The same creature can be cloned in multiple tubes, or multiple creatures can be cloned in the cloning banks. Clones can either be the same gender as the original or reverse-gendered, at the user's option. The cloning banks can sustain inert clones indefinitely; it requires a DC 20 Computer Use check to 'dump' a prepared clone and clear the tank for reuse.

Cloning tubes are inert for 1d6+1 days after either a clone is decanted from the tube or a stored clone is 'dumped' in anticipation of another cloning.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, clone
Cost 362,500 gp (DC 38)

Cosmic Loom

Aura strong universal CL 13th

Slot none Price 182,000 gp (DC 36) Weight 200 lbs
This golden, xeno-tech loom is a mass of free floating components that orbit one another, held together by arcane gravity. A skilled artisan can craft fantastic magical armor on this loom and make the task look simple.

Once per week, the Cosmic Loom can create a magical set of light or impromptu armor. The armor's base type must be one of the following types:

- Cloth, Leather, Quilted Cloth, Silken Ceremonial (PFRPG)
- Blade-Silk Robe, Buff Coat, Decadent Furs, School Uniform, Second Skin, Spacer's Jumpsuit (Technology Unleashed)

The created armor can have up to a +3 total enchantment bonus, which may either be an enchantment bonus to AC or a combination of special defensive abilities. It requires a successful DC 20 Craft (seamstress) check and approximately one hour of work to create the armor. Any skilled crafts person can use the Cosmic Loom to produce magical armor, without meeting the prerequisites for creating the armor.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Item, Craft Magic Arms and Armor, limited wish

Cost 91,000 gp (DC 33)

Crash Pass

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot none Price 12,800 gp (DC 26)

Weight negligible

A Crash Pass resembles the magnetic strip key-cards issued by most hotels. Simply by pressing the Crash Pass against any inner wall of a structure, you can create a temporary bolt hole.

The bolt hole has a door in the same architectural style as other nearby doors, and is labeled as a janitor's closet, utility room or similar.

The Crash Pass creates a small bolt hole that occupies non-dimensional space and which functions as secure shelter; and takes the form of a 10x20 ft micro-apartment with simple florescent lighting, a mid-sized comfortable bed and small desk with integrated desktop computer/television. The Crash Pass can be used once per day, and the shelter created lasts for up to 8 hours or until the person who created the bolt hole walks back through the door to the outside world.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, secure shelter

Cost 6,400 gp (DC 24)

Cyber-Heart

Aura strong transmutation CL 9th

Slot cybernetic implant (heart) Price 80,000 gp (DC 33)

Weight 2 lbs

This cybernetic artificial heart is an occult-tech reactor capable of generating more energy than most commercial fusion plants. The device must be installed in a willing cyborg recipient, either through conventional surgery or through a cyber surgery spell or similar effect. Once installed in the chest cavity, it replaces the cyborg's organic heart and begins subtly augmenting her cardiovascular system. The device is completely internal, but once the surgical incisions heal, is visible as a slowly pulsing plasma chakra beneath the skin.

While the Cyber-Heart is installed, the character does not suffer negative levels for Drain and can safely withstand an unlimited amount of Drain (or number of cybernetic implants, in non-Drain campaigns). While piloting any grade of powered armor, the Cyber-Heart interfaces with the powered armor's internal batteries, giving it effectively unlimited runtime.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, advanced steel, cyber surgery

Cost 40,000 gp (DC 31)

Cyber-Heart, Mag-Lev

Aura strong transmutation

CL 12th Slot cybernetic implant (heart)

Price 160,000 gp (DC 36) Weight 2 lbs

A Mag-Lev Cyber-Heart functions much as the same as a standard Cyber-Heart, save that the device also generates a powerful electromagnetic aura around the cyborg.

The cyborg gains Electrical Immunity, and gains the ability to fly at 120 ft (good) when within one mile of large amounts of ferrous metal; this drops to 90 ft (average) in primarily natural areas.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, advanced steel, cyber surgery, military flight, resist energy

Cost 80,000 gp (DC 33)

Cyber-Strap

Aura faint transmutation CL 1st

Slot varies Price 1,000 gp (DC 17) Weight negligible

This taut synth-leather band has a dull metal buckle made of the same dense poly-alloy common to external cyber armor, which is laser etched with the logo of a major cybernetics manufacturer.

The wearer can wrap this strap around any body part, occupying a body slot of their choice. This negates the Drain value of a single cybernetic implant in that approximate location. Cyborgs can place multiple Cyber-Straps at various points of their body if so desired. If the cyborg has multiple implants in the same approximate location (such as multiple body mounted organs, or multiple functions in a single arm), the Cyber-Strap negates the Drain value of the most expensive implant.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, advanced steel

Cost 500 gp (DC 15)

Dataminer

Aura strong divination CL 11th

Slot none Price 56,200 gp (DC 32) Weight negligible

This advanced palm top computer can do all the things that years of bad TV CSI shows have told you computers should be able to do with a photograph or fragment of data. Colorful, holographic info-windows flash in the air around the holographic keypad, providing a dizzying array of intel to the user.

The Dataminer functions as an upgraded +5 palmtop computer.

In addition, the user can use any combination of identify, photomapping or reflect the camera three times per day. Subjects to be identified must be first photographed by the Dataminer. Once per week, the user can use legend lore on a subject photographed by the Dataminer.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, dataread, hacker spark, identify, legend lore, photomapping, reflect the camera

Cost 28,100 gp (DC 29)

Eccentric DVD

Aura faint illusion CL 1st

Slot none Price 150 gp (DC 11) Weight negligible

Eccentric DVDs can be found for sale at both magical and mundane markets. Outwardly, it looks like a bootleg DVD in a slimline plastic case; the cover art looks a crudely Photoshopped movie poster that gets more than a few aspects of the movie wrong.

Each sunset the DVD's contents and odd cover art change. It becomes a new, randomly chosen film, probably something currently in theaters, but occasionally something older or more obscure.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Item, silent image, creator must be chaotic

Cost 75 gp (DC 8)

Engineer's Kit Bag

Aura faint transmutation CL 3rd

Slot none Price 2,500 gp (DC 21) Weight 25 lbs

This bulky Kevlar and canvas duffle bag is a dingy grey (it used to be white, probably) and is covered with command patches from dozens of different starships, some military, some civilian, some on the right side of galactic law, and some obviously illegal. From the way it rattles, half a junkyard is stuffed inside.

A character who has the Engineer's Kit Bag handy receives a +5 competence bonus on Craft (mechanical), Craft (electronic) and all Craft checks made to build or repair starships, mecha or their components. Further, each Engineer's Kit Bag has a single narrow focus and receives a +10 competence bonus on those checks with tasks related to that focus. Examples of a specific focus include:

- Communications and sensor systems
- Sublight propulsion systems
- Warp drive maintenance
- Weapons maintenance.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, make whole, creator must possess the Gear Head feat

Cost 1,250 gp (DC 18)

External Attack Barrier

Aura faint abjuration CL 5th

Slot neck Price 28,000 gp (DC 29) Weight 2 lbs

Resembling a wide white plastic collar slightly thicker than a man's finger, this device attaches to hard points on the neck of a cyborg with an installed neuro-computer.

Only a creature with an Onboard Computer cybernetic implant (or similar natural device) can benefit from an External Attack Barrier. While this device is worn around the neck, the character cannot be cyber-hacked.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, nondetection, creator must have 5 ranks in Computer Use
Cost 14,000 gp (DC 27)

Gloves, Patdown

Aura faint divination CL 1st
Slot hands Price 1,000 gp (DC 17) Weight negligible
The finger tips of these otherwise matte black, ultra-light nylon gloves are hazard yellow.

Patdown Gloves provide the wearer with a +10 bonus on Perception checks to find or spot a concealed weapon or object hidden on another creature. These gloves do not provide a benefit on other Perception checks.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, creator must have 5 ranks in Perception
Cost 500 gp (DC 15)

Goggles, Combat Data

Aura strong divination CL 6th
Slot eyes Price 26,400 gp (DC 29) Weight 1 lb
Combat Data Goggles are bulbous yellow visors, similar to those worn by engineers and astronauts throughout the galaxy. These arcano-tech devices are programmed to assist warriors in not only taking down their enemies but also identifying xeno-tech they come across.

Combat Data Goggles provide the wearer with a +1 enchantment bonus on ranged attack rolls while worn.

Additionally, the wearer may See Invisibility for up to one hour per day; this power may be activated as a swift action. The duration need not be consecutive, but must be used in at least 1 minute increments per activation.

The wearer can use Identify once per day.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Item, identify, see invisibility, true strike
Cost 12,200 gp (DC 26)

Goggles, Mirrorshades

Aura faint transmutation CL 3rd
Slot eyes Price 2,800 gp (DC 21) Weight negligible
These wide, wrap-around, obsidian gloss sunglasses have a look that is simultaneously threateningly futuristic and vaguely retro.

While wearing Mirrorshades, the character gains a +4 luck bonus on Initiative checks in urban or artificial environments between the hours of sunset and sunrise. In addition, the character is treated as possessing the Quick Draw feat with any one handed firearm or energy weapon during these hours. Mirrorshades provide no benefit in a natural setting or during daylight hours.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, cat's grace
Cost 1,400 gp (DC 19)

Goggles, Rescue

Aura faint divination CL 1st
Slot eyes Price 2,750 gp (DC 21) Weight negligible

Rescue Goggles are mirrored, red glass protective goggles that completely cover the wearer's eyes and bridge of their nose.

While wearing Rescue Goggles, the wearer benefits from a constant deathwatch and detect injured effect, both of which have a 30 ft conical area of effect.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, deathwatch, detect injured

Cost 1,375 gp (DC 19)

Goggles, Shooter

Aura faint transmutation CL 3rd

Slot eyes Price 2,400 gp (DC 21) Weight negligible

These polarized, yellow-tinted shooting glasses are similar to the ones worn on firing ranges and at firearms competitions throughout the world.

While wearing these goggles, the wearer can call upon their magic as an immediate action. Doing so either acts as reload or clear jam which benefits any firearm the wearer is currently wielding. Each time the Shooter Goggles' power is called upon, one of the lenses shatters, as if struck by a bullet. If only one lens is shattered, the Shooter Goggles repair themselves by the following dawn. However, if the second lens is shattered, the Shooter Goggles are destroyed.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, Personal and Advanced Firearms Proficiency, reload, clear jam

Cost 1,200 gp (DC 18)

Goggles, Storm Glasses

Aura moderate evocation CL 5th

Slot eyes Price 2,300 gp (DC 21) Weight negligible

These round, fashionable eye glasses have a copper frame, and occasionally crackle with static electricity or make the wearer's hair stand on end randomly.

While wearing Storm Glasses, all the wearer's successful ranged weapon attacks, including spells requiring an attack roll inflict an additional +1 point of electrical damage. This stacks with damage produced by weapons that inflict electrical base damage, as well as weapons with the shocking or shocking burst property or similar properties.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, call lightning or lightning bolt

Cost 1,150 gp (DC 18)

Hacker Box

Aura faint divination CL 3rd

Slot none Price 12,000 gp (DC 26) Weight 5 lbs

This bulky, square electronic device is the size of a small briefcase and has a grayish metal case and a small green and black monitor. Bulky plugs and connectors allow the Hacker Box to interface with virtually every sort of computer used in this galaxy.

The Hacker Box acts as a masterwork electronics kit. In addition, if the device is used in conjunction with a check, the Hacker Box provides a +10 competence bonus on Computer Use checks, or a +5 competence bonus on Disable Device checks related to electronic devices and locks.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, comprehend languages, hacker spark

Cost 6,000 gp (DC 24)

Healer's Halo

Aura moderate transmutation or divination CL 3rd

Slot head Price 2,300 gp (DC 21) Weight 0.5 lbs

This light golden circlet wraps around the wearer's ears and clings tightly to the base of their skull, the golden cable arcing back to form a slender crescent encircling the head.

While wearing the Healer's Halo, the character gains a +4 competence bonus on Heal checks and requires half the usual time to treat deadly wounds or perform surgery. In addition, the wearer can provide long term care for up to eight (8) patients per day rather than the six normally allowed.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, cure light wounds or ibis' brilliance^C

Cost 1,150 gp (DC 18)

Kinetic Harness

Aura strong abjuration CL 10th

Slot body Price 320,000 gp (DC 38) Weight 5 lbs

This high-tech, chest piece is worn on a series of X-configuration nylon straps, and consists of a thick, rugged, plastic disk with a glowing energy node at the center. The disk sits between the breasts, and emits a body-wide kinetic energy field.

The Kinetic Harness projects a non-airtight forcefield around the user at all times, which provides 25 additional Hit Points which are lost first. If the forcefield is reduced to 0 HP, the Kinetic Harness goes off line and remains inactive for 1d4+1 days. A damaged, but not destroyed, forcefield recovers 1d6+1 Hit Points per hour of inactivity. If damaged again, the forcefield does not begin regenerating until an hour with no additional damage passes.

The wearer can redirect energy from the forcefield as a standard action to activate other features of the Kinetic Harness. Each feature functions as a spell-like ability accessible via the device, and each expends an amount of the forcefield's bonus HP, listed in parenthesis. The Kinetic Harness has the following spells accessible, and all may be used to benefit the wearer only.

- Bull's Strength (expends 8 HP)
- Cat's Grace (expends 8 HP)
- Haste (expends 12 HP)
- Jump (expends 5 HP)
- Military Flight (expends 20 HP)
- Resist Energy (force only) (expends 5HP)

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, bull's strength, cat's grace, haste, jump, military flight, resist energy
Cost 160,000 gp (DC 36)

Lucky Dog Tags

Aura faint abjuration CL 3rd
Slot neck Price 1,230 gp (DC 18) Weight negligible
These ordinary aluminum dog tags have the holy symbol of the wearer's faith scratched crudely into one side, probably with a pocket knife in an idle moment.

The Lucky Dog Tags provide the character with a +1 resistance bonus on all saving throws. If the wearer suffers a critical hit that would reduce them to 0 HP or fewer, they can choose to destroy the lucky dog tags as an immediate action. Doing so negates the critical hit, turning it into an ordinary hit.

Similar Items

Lucky Scripture takes up no item slot, and is a small, military-issued pocket Bible or similar holy text. The Lucky Scripture provides a +2 resistance on all saving throws, and can be sacrificed to negate a critical hit in the same manner. Lucky Scripture has a purchase price of 2,230 gp (DC 21).

Lucky Zippo is an engraved silver Zippo lighter. It takes up no item slot, and provides a +1 resistance bonus on all saving throws. The owner can sacrifice the Lucky Zippo to force the attacker to re-roll their critical confirmation roll. The Lucky Zippo has a purchase price of 950 gp (DC 17).

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Item, shield of faith
Cost 615 gp (DC 16)

Mindscrubber Wand

Aura strong enchantment CL 10th

Slot none Price 80,000 gp (DC 33) Weight 1 lb

This golden wand honestly looks more like a cheap sex toy than an occult-tech brainwashing device. A bright azure light strip runs the length of the wand, directly down the centerline of the device.

As a full round action, the user can brandish the Mindscrubber Wand, affecting all creatures in a 30 ft cone that can clearly see the wand. Creatures who fail a DC 16 WILL Save have all memory of the preceding three minutes erased, as per modify memory. A creature can only be affected by the Mindscrubber Wand once within any 24 hour period.

Mysterious Menu

Aura moderate conjuration CL 5th
Slot none Price 6,000gp (DC 24)
Weight negligible

This looks exactly like the dozens of ordinary take out menu pamphlets stuck to refrigerator doors or kept somewhere in the kitchen of homes throughout the world. The Mysterious Menu is a cheaply printed menu flyer for a restaurant (usually Chinese or Indian cuisine, but occasionally Tex-Mex, pizza or subs) that doesn't exist.

Once per day, the Menu's owner can call the number printed and order enough ordinary food and drink for up to four people, despite the error message playing on the other end. The order arrives within 30 minutes to an hour, delivered by a phantasmal delivery person made of shadows, trash and dust.

Cost 3,000 gp (DC 22)

Musician's Wallet

Aura moderate conjuration CL 7th

Slot none Price 4,000 gp (DC 23) Weight negligible

This slimline black leather wallet has a golden guitar design on the front, and the inner pockets are decorated with similar musical motifs.

Once per day, the wallet's owner can open the wallet to conjure any small musical accessory or replacement component for a musical instrument, such as a pair of drumsticks, new guitar or violin strings, replacement valves for a saxophone, and similar small items. If the Musician's Wallet is carried, the character gains a +2 competence bonus on Craft checks made to repair (but not create) musical instruments.

Racing Gloves

Aura faint transmutation CL 1st

Slot hands Price 2,000 gp (DC 20) Weight negligible
Dogfighters and space-pilots swear by these grey nylon, ventilated racing gloves with a eye-catching scarlet stripe.

While wearing Racing Gloves, you receive a +2 competence bonus on most Pilot checks; when making an opposed Pilot check, this increases to a +5 competence bonus.

Recollect Memory Implanter

Aura strong evocation CL 18th

Slot none Price 280,000 gp (DC 37) Weight 500 lbs

The Recollect Memory Implanter is a massive high-tech throne, something like a futuristic cross between an electric chair and dental exam chair. These chairs often include masterwork manacles and restraints.

A willing or helpless subject placed into the RMI undergoes dramatic memory alteration. This functions as modify memory, save that false memories up to six months in duration can be implanted. Each hour of effort by the programmer implants memories of up to one week's duration. As always, illogical or nonsensical memories are dismissed as dreams, hallucinations or the aftereffects of drugs or alcohol.

Aura moderate transmutation CL 10th

Slot ring Price 8,500 gp (DC 25) Weight negligible

This plain silver ring has nearly invisible injection needles on the inner surface, and when the ring is twisted, they deliver a minute yet potent payload of synthetic adrenaline and short duration occult steroids.

Once per day, the wearer can twist the Adrenaline Ring to gain a +8 enhancement bonus to his STR and a +4 enhancement bonus to his CON scores for one minute. The wearer is fatigued for 10 minutes after this enhancement period ends.

Construction

Requirements Forge Ring, Heal 10 ranks, bear's endurance, bull's strength
Cost 4,250 gp (DC 23)

Ring, Bailout

Aura faint abjuration CL 3rd

Slot ring Price 6,000 gp (DC 24) Weight negligible

This simple, unadorned ring is made of some bright orange alien metal that gleams and flashes in the sunlight. On the hand, the plain metal band is incredibly eye-catching. Pilots covet these orange rings.

The Bailout Ring activates automatically if the wearer is involved in any vehicle or aircraft crash. Any damage inflicted by the crash is treated as non-lethal damage instead.

Construction

Requirements Forge Ring, crash balloon
Cost 3,000 gp (DC 22)

Ring, Flight

Aura moderate transmutation CL 10th

Slot ring Price 112,000 gp (DC 34) Weight negligible

This heavy golden ring, emblazoned with the heraldic crest of a galactic military order or police squad, contains thousands of miles of intricate micro-circuitry and nanite-based anti-grav field emitters.

While wearing a Flight Ring, the character benefits from a constant military flight effect. In addition, the ring's bodywide energy field has moderate life-support properties, and the wearer is treated as being equipped with the Space Suit special armor quality.

Construction

Requirements Forge Ring, emergency space suit, military flight

Cost 56,000 gp (DC 32)

Ring, Infinite Ammo

Aura faint conjuration CL 3rd

Slot ring Price 6,000 gp (DC 24) Weight negligible

This silver ring is studded with alternating bands of black glass along its length, giving it stripes resembling binary code.

A firearm or energy weapon wielded in the same hand as the ring is affected by the infinite ammunition spell, automatically refilling its cell or magazine when emptied.

Similar Items

A variety of similar items, all forged with Craft Wondrous Items, can be designed to occupy different body slots. A set of Infinite Ammo Bracers occupies the wrist slot, a pendant form of this gadget might occupy the neck slot, and a diadem type item or Rambo-inspired headband might occupy the head slot. Other possibilities, too many to list, occupy different body slots. The Charging Holster, described elsewhere in this sourcebook, occupies no item slot.

Construction

Requirements Forge Ring, infinite ammunition

Cost 3,000 gp (DC 22)

Ring, Temporal Spin

Aura moderate transmutation CL 10th

Slot ring Price 15,000 gp (DC 27) Weight negligible

This black metal ring holds a caged, atomic-scale singularity within a tiny magnetic bottle at its center. Twisting the ring fractionally weakens the magnetic bottle, allowing the ring's circuitry to provide tactical time warping.

The Ring of Temporal Spin allows the wearer to use any one of the following spells once per day: fold space, haste or military flight.

Construction

Requirements Forge Ring, Knowledge (physical sciences) 10 ranks, fold space, haste, military flight

Cost 7,500 gp (DC 25)

Ring, Unitrans

Aura faint divination CL 3rd

Slot ring (or other) Price 6,000 gp (DC 24) Weight negligible

The Unitrans (short for 'universal translation') ring is a common magical item; adventurers and diplomats who can afford a Unitrans Ring will always choose it over tech-based translation devices. The Unitrans Ring is made from interlaced metal cords of green steel and star-gold.

The wearer of the Unitrans Ring is considered to be under a permanent tongues effect. Though normally worn as finger jewelry, this item is also available as a body piercing, which occupies either the body, belt or chest slot instead of a ring slot, at the same cost. The belt slot version, which is a genital piercing, is probably the most popular, probably because the galaxy is full of perverts.

Construction

Requirements Forge Ring, tongues

Cost 3,000 gp (DC 22)

Sanitizing Airlock

Aura strong conjuration CL 10th

Slot none Price 60,000 gp (DC 32) Weight architectural feature – several thousand pounds

This airlock is marked with an inlay of gleaming jade around each hatch.

When a creature of size Large or smaller enters the air lock, it cycles in one round. The airlock emits a scentless green mist that kills pathogens and disease. Any creature within the airlock is affected as if by remove disease, while their skin, clothing and gear are sterilized via the prestidigitation spell.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, remove disease, prestidigitation

Cost 30,000 gp (DC 30)

Scan-Tac Monocle

Aura moderate divination CL 5th

Slot eyes Price 32,000 gp (DC 30) Weight negligible

A Scan-Tac Monocle is a high-tech, smart-glass amber lens that fits over the right eye and wraps around the back of the wearer's skull, just above the ears. When the wearer calls upon the Scan-Tac Monocle's sensory capabilities, the amber lens flashes with rapidly changing, orange and crimson data-glyphs.

The wearer can use arcane sight at will, save this effect only reveals information about a subject's magical weapons, magical shield and armor, and ongoing magical effects and auras that directly increase a creature's combat effectiveness in some manner.

In addition, the wearer can use either of the following spells, three times per day each: either true strike or star ranging.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, arcane sight, star ranging, true strike

Shooter's Index

Aura strong divination CL 10th

Slot none Price 10,000 gp (DC 26) Weight 4 lbs

This phonebook-sized instructional manual is the definitive reference for both firearms and automotive mechanics. It features exactly researched, and dizzily intricate illustrations of practically every gun (and classic car!) in the world, from the commonplace to the truly obscure.

After spending at least 40 hours studying the Shooter's Index, a character gains any one of the following feats as a bonus feat, chosen by the student. A character can only receive each feat once, but long study of the Shooter's Index can provide all the following feats.

- Advanced Firearms Proficiency
- Burst Fire
- Personal Firearms Proficiency
- Force Stop
- Master Crafter (either firearms or vehicles, choose only one)
- Skill Focus (Craft: mechanical or Craft: gunsmith, choose only one)
- Skill Focus (Drive)
- Weapon Focus (any single firearm of choice)

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, creator must have Gearhead and Personal and Advanced Firearms Proficiency, and at least 10 ranks in Craft (gunsmith or mechanical)

Cost 5,000 gp (DC 23)

Silkspinner

Aura faint conjuration CL 5th

Slot wrists Price 20,125 gp (DC 28) Weight 2 lbs (pair)

These matched bracers are lowslung, glossy black bio-mechanical devices which rise to a shallow, hill-like crest just above the wearer's carpals when donned. A single iris-like orifice at the fore of the device glows a dim pinkish-red and continually rotates to prevent the emitter nozzle from becoming jammed.

While wearing a pair of Silkspinners, the character can use web at will as a spell-like ability. In addition, the wearer can use the device to produce a 50 ft length of silk rope at will as a full round action.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, web

Cost 10,063 gp (DC 26)

Space Breather

Aura moderate conjuration CL 5th

Slot head and belt Price 2,400 gp (DC 21) Weight 2 lbs

This slim breathing mask has a transparent visor that wraps around the face, and a durable rubber tube leading to a small oxygen pack worn on the belt. Despite the fact that the Space Breather only covers the face, it provides as much protection from the harsh conditions of space as any full environmental suit.

While wearing the Space Breather, the character is treated as wearing a Space Suit for the purpose of environmental effects (gaining all the benefits of a Space Suit's special qualities entry).

Similar Items

The Breathing Beavour is an enchanted cerami-steel beavour- a wide, convex armored collar worn around the throat, designed to protect the neck, jaw and nose. The Breathing Beavour occupies the neck slot; it can be worn independently, or with any armor with the space suit property. While the Breathing Beavour is worn, the armor's helmet shot becomes available without losing the space suit property.

A Breathing Beavour has the same costs and construction requirements as a Space Breather.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Item, emergency space suit

Cost 1,200 gp (DC 18)

Staff, Engineering Wrench

Aura strong transmutation CL 10th

Slot none Price 62,500 gp (DC 32) Weight 3 lbs

This 'staff' is a bulky, black aluminum engineer's adjustable wrench with heavy non-conductive orange grips. Proximate glyphs, printed in black on against the orange grips, offer traditional prayers to machine spirits.

The Engineer's Wrench allows the use of the following spells, each costing one or more charges. A newly created Engineer's Wrench has 50 charges.

- Century Machine
- Custom Mod

- Electronic Inventory
- Maintenance Coffin
- Pit Crew's Speed
- Robotic Logic
- Security Corridor
- Work Around

As long as the Engineer's Wrench has at least one charge remaining, the user can use any of the following spells, which do not expend charges.

- Hard Reboot
- Recharge Droid Tools
- Reconfigure Star Droid

Construction

Requirements Craft Staff, creator must be Proximate, Free Spacer, Shipper or a similar nomadic race, century machine, custom mod, electronic inventory, hard reboot, maintenance coffin, pit crew's speed, recharge droid tools, reconfigure Star Droid, robotic logic, security corridor, work around

Cost 31,250 gp (DC 30)

Staff, Pilgrim's

Aura strong conjuration CL 9th

Slot weapon Price 60,300 gp (DC 32) Weight 5 lbs

This metal and plastic staff is molded in cold colors- futuristic shades of blue and silver. A textured rubber grip midway down the shaft includes hidden command keys and activation studs. Luminous blue crystal energy discharge projectors emit potent techno-mystical energy, and the staff's Y-shaped tip crackles with silver-blue lightning. The Pilgrim's Staff makes travel throughout the galaxy easier, and imbues a sense of cosmic wanderlust.

The Pilgrim's Staff allows the use of the following spells, each costing one or more charges. A newly created Pilgrim's Staff has 50 charges.

- Air Walk
- Atmos Field
- Boarding Lock
- Commune With Nature
- Emergency Space Suit
- Know Direction (usable at will, expends no charges to use)
- Speak With Animals (usable at will, expends no charges to use)
- Warp Envelope (1 charge per 10 light years traveled)

Construction

Requirements Craft Staff, air walk, atmos field, boarding lock, commune with nature, emergency space suit, know direction, speak with animals, warp envelope

Cost 30,150 gp (DC 30)

Stasis Pod, Medical

Aura strong transmutation CL 15th

Slot none Price 240,000 gp (DC 37) Weight 400 lbs

The Medical Stasis Pod is a plastic and transparent aluminum medical pod with a clean, antiseptic white casing. Blood red, galactically recognized medical symbols, including the Terran red cross, adorn the housing. Complex computer controls extend along one side of the bulky device.

A creature placed into the Medical Stasis Pod is placed under a temporal stasis effect of variable duration. The Pod can be programmed to keep the creature suspended for any duration, ranging from 24 hours to up to 5,000 years. Releasing a creature from the Pod before the duration expires requires a DC 28 Computer Use check to reprogram the device.

A creature who remains in the pod for at least 30 days benefits from a Heal spell.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Item, heal, temporal stasis

Cost 120,000 gp (DC 34)

Stasis Pod, Re-Edu

Aura strong enchantment and transmutation CL 18th

Slot none Price 498,000 gp (DC 39) Weight 800-1,200 lbs

A prisoner placed in this ice-rimed stasis pod is kept in cryo-suspension for years, even decades, while subconscious mental reorganization takes place in the prisoner's slumbering mind.

Each year a creature remains in a the Re-Edu Stasis Pod, they are subject to a new geas placed upon them by the person who placed them into the pod and programmed its function. All geas are programmed when the prisoner is interred, and cannot be changed thereafter. There is no limit to the number of geas that can be placed, and the prisoner receives no saving throw. No geas is placed until the prisoner has spent at least a year in the Re-Edu Stasis Pod.

Normally, the first geas placed is a command to refrain from whatever crime caused the cryo-stasis sentence. After this first geas is placed, rather than additional geas, the programmer can chose to perform the following variant mental modifications in place of one or more additional geas:

- Provide the prisoner with 1d4 ranks in a skill of the user's choice they have no ranks in.
- Provide the prisoner with a new feat of the user's choice.
- Implant the ability to speak and read a language of the user's choice.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Item, geas/quest, temporal stasis

Cost 249,000 gp (DC 37)

Teaching Cube

Aura faint transmutation CL 3rd

Slot Price 6,000 gp (DC 24) Weight 2 lbs

This intricate bronze cube is about the size of a ripe orange. When the device is opened, it displays a high-resolution holo-file, providing comprehensive knowledge on one particular subject of choice.

By studying a Teaching Cube for 8 hours and making a successful DC 12 INT check, a character gains 1 rank in the skill the Teaching Cube specializes in. A character can only benefit from a particular Teaching Cube once, though multiple creatures can all learn from the same cube.

Teaching Cubes placed as treasure usually cover a randomly chosen skill. The most common random Teaching Cubes cover the following skills, though if you can find one, there are Teaching Cubes for every skill, no matter how obscure. Rarer Teaching cost a premium, however.

Test Drive Keychain

Aura moderate conjuration CL 7th

Slot none Price 11,200 gp (DC 26) Weight negligible

This ordinary key fob is attached to a high-tech little remote starter and alarm button. In addition to the expected buttons for a device of that type, there's a glowing blue button with an odd occult glyph dead center on the remote.

Once per day, the wielder can summon an automobile, motorcycle or light truck or SUV, as per the spell, ghost chassis. All vehicles created by this device are the same blue color as the remote's glowing button, and all are painted in corporate livery (for a non-existent business) that incorporates the conjuring glyph in the logo.

Similar Items

Many variants of this item exist, created by different gear-head working mages. The Commuter's Keychain can conjure only 2-door automobiles with rather average performance, but can do so in any color or style desired. The 1% Keychain only summons American or British heavy motorcycles, maybe the occasionally Harley Davidson trike. Other variants exist, and all variants have similar costs and construction requirements.

Velocity Mode Cog

Aura strong conjuration CL 10th

Slot none Price 65,000 gp (DC 32) Weight 5 lbs (inactive)

This fist-sized metallic sphere is geometrically perfect, yet instead of a single forged orb of metal, it is composed of countless tiny gears and shifting components which never stop moving yet never lose their perfectly spherical configuration.

The Velocity Mode Cog can be inserted into any grade of Powered Armor to give the armor a new capability. The Velocity Mode Cog can not be placed in temporary Powered Armor, such as that created by the call powered armor spell nor by similar effects. Once inserted in Powered Armor, it requires a DC 35 Craft (mechanical) check to remove the Cog. If the Powered Armor is destroyed, the Cog appears in an open square adjacent to the destroyed armor.

Once the Velocity Mode Cog is inserted, the Powered Armor's pilot can initiate Velocity Mode as a swift action. While in Velocity Mode, the wearer and her armor compress painlessly into a spherical shape; the only action other than movement the wearer can take is to end the Velocity Mode as a swift action.

While in Velocity Mode, the wearer's base landspeed is increased by x4, ignoring the reduction for wearing heavy armor (so a base land speed of 30 ft becomes 120 ft), and the wearer gains access to the Run feat. The wearer can ignore the effects of up to 20 ft of difficult terrain while moving in Velocity Mode.

Special: A creature with the Battlechanger subtype can insert the Velocity Mode Cog into their own anatomy, rather than a suit of powered armor, gaining the item's benefit as an innate ability.

Wayfarer's Pack

Aura strong conjuration CL 11th

Slot none Price 72,400 gp (DC 33) Weight 5 lbs (empty)

This durable aluminum and nylon traveller's backpack is an unremarkable smoky blue-grey, and includes a huge main storage compartment, multiple zippered waterproof compartments, and an attachment frame that can easily stow a bedroll.

The Wayfarer's Pack functions identically to a handy haversack. In addition, the Pack's owner can use the traveler's passport spell up to twice per day, and may use the pirate's registration spell to affect a vessel she is traveling upon once per week.

Wondrous Array (various items)

Aura faint transmutation CL 3rd

Slot varies (see chart) Weight negligible to 2-3 lbs maximum

"Wondrous Array" is a collective term for an endless variety of skill-enhancing magic items found throughout the multiverse. These trinkets all enhance a particular skill or pair of skills, and take the form of objects common in the modern world. You might find an enchanted necktie, magically enhanced smartphone, lucky pair of athletic shoes, occult sunglasses, blessed key chains, or ensorcelled modern clothing in a variety of styles. If you wish to randomly build minor skill-enhancing wondrous items, roll the indicated dice on the following chart and see what you come up with.

All of the items built as part of a Wondrous Array are crafted with Craft Wondrous Items, and require the use of any 2nd level ability score enhancing spell, such as bull's strength or cat's grace, which relates to the key ability score for the skill to be enhanced. All items have a construction cost roughly half the base price.

Wondrous Array Type and Item Slot (d12)

Anthro-Gen Mutagen (Cn)

Aura moderate transmutation CL 7th

Slot none Price 1,100 gp (DC 18) Weight 1 lb

This powerful mutagen glows a pale blue, like a clear summer sky. The mutagen's injector is kept in a relatively heavy, refrigerated metal tube until the chemical is needed. A QR code stamped into one end of the cylinder provides full data on the mutagen, safety precautions and prescriptions for use when scanned.

After injecting the Anthro-Gen Mutagen, a character becomes unconscious for 2d6 hours, during which time they are transformed into an Anthro as per the trans-fur-mation spell.

This mutagen can be injected into a willing target as a full round action. If the target is not bound or otherwise helpless, it requires a melee attack (with the needle acting as an improvised weapon) to inject the chemical. In either case, an unwilling target gains a FORT Save to resist the mutagen's effect.

Astronaut Ice Cream (Cn)

Aura faint enchantment CL 5th

Slot none Price 750 gp (DC 17) Weight negligible

Astronaut Ice Cream comes in a vacuum-sealed, foil tube about four inches long and is designed to be squeezed into the mouth of a hungry spacer, no matter his species or phenotype. Astronaut Ice Cream comes in a variety of flavors, from old Earth standards like vanilla and chocolate to truly intriguing alien flavors.

Eating Astronaut Ice Cream provides the user the benefit of Good Hope for 5 minutes after consumption. If Astronaut Ice Cream is used in a zero gravity environment, the effect's duration is extended to 25 minutes.

Construction

Battlechanger Nanites (Cn)

Aura moderate transmutation CL 7th

Slot none Price 1,050 gp (DC 18) Weight negligible

This hollow polymer pyramid is semi-transparent, allowing you to glimpse the thin, glittering golden liquid within. When gripped firmly in hand, the pyramid's edges instantly transform into injectors, rushing the liquid within into the user's bloodstream.

When the Battlechanger Nanites are injected, the user gains the Battlechanger subtype and gains the ability to speak and read one Battlechanger dialect of choice (often Tech-FG or Tech-EM). The user can now choose feats and traits restricted to Battlechangers.

Special: Only living creatures with discernable anatomies may utilize Battlechanger Nanites.

Cyber-Polish (Cn)

Aura faint transmutation CL 3rd

Slot none Price 1,200 gp (DC 18) Weight 2 lbs

This small silver tin is intricately machine-printed with ornate gears in a rainbow of colors. Within is a slimy, translucent milky-white polish that smells like high-grade machine lubricant and silicon.

Each tin of Cyber-Polish contains enough for four applications to a Small or Medium creature.

When used by any creature with the Cyborg subtype, it restores 2d6+3 HP to the creature, and removes the broken condition from any implanted cybernetic systems. If the creature is Large or larger, it requires an additional dose per size category past Medium to achieve the same effect. Cyber-Polish has no effect if used by a creature without the Cyborg subtype.

Dehydrated Feast (Cn)

Aura strong conjuration CL 11th
Slot none Price 3,300 gp (DC 22) Weight negligible
A tiny silver foil-wrapped cube of nutri-matter explodes into a delicious seven course banquet when placed on a level surface, sprinkled with water and exposed to mild heat. The dehydrated feast includes tasty entrees, luscious deserts and rare delicacies from a dozen worlds.

The Dehydrated Feast functions as a Heroes' Feast, save it requires only a full round action to prepare.

Demographic Card (Cn)

Aura faint transmutation CL 5th
Slot none Price 550 gp (DC 15) Weight negligible
This magic item is a small, high-quality bond paper card with an image of a particular kind of person printed on it. The person depicted is as blankly and non-threateningly attractive as a stock photograph, and the text printed on the card has a slick, corporate look to it.

While carrying the Demographic Card, the wielder can tear the card to gain a +10 bonus on all Bluff and Diplomacy checks made against a specific demographic group, depicted by the person on the card for one hour or until the torn Demographic Card is discarded. This demographic can be gender (all males, all females), racial or ethnic (Hispanic, African American, Japanese, ect) or species based (Elves, Free Spacers, creatures with the Mutant subtype, ect).

Dino Disk (Cn)

Aura moderate conjuration CL 11th
Slot none Price 3,300 gp (DC 22) Weight negligible
Dino Disks are thin plastic wafers wrapped in a foil wrapper printed to look like dinosaur leather. Unwrap, toss (as a standard action) and summon some prehistoric behemoths to wreak a little havoc.

Using the Dino Disk summons either a single Triceratops, or 1d4+1 Anklyosaurs, or 2d4+1 Deinonychus. The summoned creature (s) serves the user for 1 minute or until slain.

The Dino Disk displays a holographic image of the type of creature it summons, and a specific Dino Disk can only summon creatures of that type (either a Triceratops, some Ankylosaurs or some Deinonychus).

Fuelon Crystal (Cn)

Aura faint evocation (least & lesser) or moderate evocation (greater)
CL 1st (least), 3rd (lesser) or 8th (greater)
Price 150 gp (DC 11) least 750 gp (DC 17) lesser 1,800 gp (DC 20) greater
Slot none Weight 5-40 lbs (5d8 lbs)
In its natural state, Fuelon is an iridescent purple-red crystal that glows brightly with its own strange internal light. Battlechangers ingest raw Fuelon crystals, either by swallowing them (in the case of Battlechangers with humanoid lips) or by inserting the crystals into a special fueling port somewhere on their body, often on the chest plate or forearm. Fuelon deposits naturally occur in several planets across the galaxy, including in remote locations on Earth and throughout the Solar System!

A least Fuelon crystal is grape-sized and restores 1 point to a Battlechanger's Fuelon pool when consumed.

A lesser Fuelon Crystal is roughly softball-sized and restores 1d4+1 points to a Battlechanger's Fuelon pool when consumed.

A greater Fuelon Crystal is roughly basketball-sized, and restores 3d6 points to a Battlechanger's Fuelon pool when consumed.

Construction

Naturally occurring, albeit rare mineral.

G-Pill (Cn)

Aura faint abjuration CL 2nd

Slot none Price 100 gp (DC 10) Weight negligible

Most starships keep a bottle of these black and pink gel-caps in their first aid locker.

For 1d4 hours after taking a G-Pill, the character is treated as being under the effects of grav acclimation, and is considered to have the Zero G Training feat.

Construction

Pseudo-Skin Helmet (Cn)

Aura none (magic aura) CL 13th

Slot none Price 5,050 gp (DC 23) Weight 5 lbs

This magic item functions all but identically to the pseudo-skin mask, save that when deactivated, the device reveals itself as a surprisingly bulky helmet that slides apart to reveal the wearer's true face. The extra bulk is shockingly powerful occult chemical explosive. Anybody near this thing's in for a big surprise!

The Pseudo-Skin Helmet functions identically to the pseudo-skin mask, save that it detonates explosively 2 rounds after it is removed or its duration expires. The explosion inflicts 13d6 fire damage to everything in a 30 ft radius (REF DC 21 half).

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, alter self, delayed blast fireball, magic aura

Cost 2,525 gp (DC 21)

Pseudo-Skin Mask (Cn)

Aura none (magic aura) CL 5th

Slot head Price 500 gp (DC 15) Weight negligible

This advanced rubbery mask feels like human skin, even has warmth, and once applied, it forms a perfect disguise.

Once the Pseudo-Skin Mask is peeled away, it rapidly decomposes.

The Pseudo-Skin Mask functions as alter self, changing only the character's facial features, while the wearer simultaneously benefits from a magic aura effect that makes the mask itself read as non-magical, and the wearer read as any alignment of their choosing. These effects remain active for one hour, until the wearer removes the mask, or until the wearer suffers 5 or more points of acid or fire damage.

Construction

Cost 250 gp (DC 13)

Revelator Cigarettes (Cn)

Aura moderate divination CL 5th

Slot none Price 5,400 gp (DC 24) (pack of 12) Weight negligible

Revelator brand cigarettes are a cheap hardpack with a colorful, mostly blue and yellow package depicting John the Revelator praying with hands loosely clasped, in the style of an ancient illuminated manuscript. The mundane brand is...popular isn't the right word, because they taste like shit, but Revelators are found in the pockets of soldiers throughout the Multiverse due to their cheap price and omnipresence on PX/BX shelves. The occult version's even more popular if you can find it.

When unopened, each package contains 12 Revelators, and each Revelator can be smoked for up to 10 rounds or until extinguished. Lighting or extinguishing a Revelator is a standard action, but dropping it, or continuing to smoke is a free action.

Each round the character smokes a Revelator he or she is treated as if possessing the Trap Sense Rogue class feature; if the character already has this ability, he gains a +4 competence bonus on Perception checks to spot traps. However, each round a Revelator is smoked, the character suffers 1d6 points of damage, which cannot be prevented.

Shockflash (Cn)

Aura strong evocation (electrical) CL 11th

Slot neck or wrist Price 3,300 gp (DC 22) Weight negligible

The Shockflash is a coin-sized, flattened silver star with a slender lens of amber crystal at the center. Lightning crackles endlessly within this delicate disk, as if trapped in the glass itself. The Shockflash is worn on a black polymer 'smart-cord' that can reconfigure itself into either a bracelet or a necklace, with just a few tugs in either direction.

By shattering the pale golden glass at the center of the Shockflash as a move-equivalent action, the wearer benefits from the electrocute spell with an 11 round duration.

Spacer's Duct Tape (Cn)

Aura faint transmutation CL 1st

Slot none Price 350 gp (DC 14) Weight 1 lb

There's a lot of low-rent trader starships out there held together with duct tape and hope. This roll of silvery duct tape has enough tape for 2d12 applications. Each application of Spacer's Duct Tape transforms a temporary repair into a permanent one, provided it is applied before the jury rigging's useful life expires.

However, there is a 25% chance that a repair will fail spectacularly 2d6 days after the duct tape is applied. If a second application of Spacer's Duct Tape is placed upon the repair, there is no failure chance.

Spark Core (Cn)

Aura strong conjuration CL 11th

Slot none Price 13,300 gp (DC 27) Weight 5 lbs

The Spark Core is a marble-sized perforated sphere of gunmetal grey alloy enclosing a small yet intensely bright micro-star. Within the tiny fusion furnace at the device's heart, a complete assembly protocol and AI matrix is stored as pure light.

When the Spark Core is placed atop or inside a mostly metal, plastic or polymer object weighing at least one ton, it begins creating a new robotic lifeform via the mecha genesis spell. The creation mass used can be scrap, a vehicle, raw materials, or virtually anything else of appropriate composition and mass. Over the next hour, bright energy discharges shape the raw material into a new robotic lifeform of a type decided by the Spark Core's creator at the time of creation.

Special: The Spark Core can be used as an improvised and highly potent explosive. The device has Hardness 20 and 50 HP, and is immune to Fire and Electrical damage. If destroyed, the device detonates, inflicting 20d6 damage to a 100 ft radius (REF DC 20 half). Half the damage is fire, the other half is electrical. The blast radius is considered a moderately radioactive environment for 1d6 days after the explosion.

Star Shot Adaptor (Cn)

Aura faint transmutation CL 1st

Slot none Price 325 gp (DC 14) Weight negligible

This tubular, silver and black plastic tube resembles a silencer, and attaches to the projector or barrel of an energy weapon in a similar manner. Once attached, glowing circuitry on the Star Shot Adaptor lights up as the gadget synchs to the energy weapon.

Once attached, the Star Shot Adaptor cannot be removed without destroying it. The next 2d6 shots made by the attached energy weapon have their range increment increased by x10 when fired in space or zero-g conditions, as per the spell star ranging. When the gadget's power is expended, it flakes away like glowing ash, freeing the attached weapon.

Armor Skin

Aura moderate conjuration and transmutation

CL 10th

Slot armor Price 62,000 gp (DC 32) Weight 5 lbs

This glossy black leather jacket is cut in a futuristic fashion, and has long sleeves that hang down low over the wearer's hands. A stiff, high collar protects the throat and conceals the wearer's lower lips when zipped tight. Angular snap closures on the jacket's breast firmly seal the jacket around the chest.

Armor Skin is a +4 buff coat.

Once per day, as a standard action, the wielder can summon a set of flight capable +1 grade I powered armor around himself. The armor has a flight speed of 500 ft (good) and has the faceted, ebony lines of a stealth bomber. The armor remains for up to 10 minutes or until the wearer dismisses it.

Casting Assist Dress

Aura strong evocation CL 12th

Slot armor Price 114,000 gp (DC 34) Weight 2 lbs

This elaborate, futuristic educational uniform is a crisp, almost metallic white. The men's uniform consists of pleated slacks, the women's a simple skirt that hangs to just beneath the knee. The top is a zippered blazer with double-breasted color- the white of the Casting Assist Dress is broken by large blocks of black, which resembles circuit diagrams. These panels glow a pale blue when charged with arcane power.

The Casting Assist Dress is a +3 school uniform.

Special: The Casting Assist Dress is designed specifically to augment the spellcasting abilities of a Modern Spellcaster. Only a Modern Spellcaster can gain the following additional benefits from this magic item.

While wearing the Casting Assist Dress, a Modern Spellcaster gains a +4 equipment bonus on concentration checks.

By activating the Casting Assist Dress by expending 5 Spell Points, the wearer can allow the Casting Assist Dress to maintain concentration on an ongoing spell for one round; after this period, the caster may resume concentration himself (if duration remains) or allow the spell to lapse. Additionally, by expending 10 Spell Points to activate the dress, the wearer can improve the dress' equipment bonus on concentration checks to +10 for one round.

Finally, the wearer may place up to 20 Spell Points into the Casting Assistance Dress and store them indefinitely, or until retrieved as part of the action of casting a spell, as per the arcane capacitor spell.

Cyber-Ninja's Armor

Aura moderate transmutation and abjuration CL 10th
Slot armor Price 85,000 gp (DC 33) Weight 90 lbs
This sleek, matte black and grey set of powered armor is intricately machined with very few large, unbroken armor pieces. Instead, thousands of individual, armored tesserae work together to provide both defense and unimpeded mobility. The helmet is fully enclosed with a slender optics band providing a full-spectrum view of the outside world, but reveals nothing about the wearer's race, gender or even species. The aerodynamic helmet includes a voice-changer system for even greater anonymity.

The Cyber-Ninja's Armor is a set of +2 creeping grade-I powered armor of improved shadow. While wearing the Cyber-Ninja's Armor, the character gains a +10 competence bonus on Stealth and Acrobatics checks made to jump, and the armor's check penalty does not apply to either of these skills. While wearing this armor, the character is under the effects of a constant non-detection spell.

Cost 26,500 gp (DC 29)

Deadwing Shell

Aura moderate conjuration CL 15th
Slot armor Price 250,000 gp (DC 37) Weight 175 lbs

The Deadwing Shell is of the same design legacy as the Deadman Armor and Dead Shell but is far more expensive and far more restricted in its battlefield use. The Deadwing Shell's skeletal motif is far more extensive, with silver/white detailing resembling a naked spinal column, pelvis and leg bones. A heavy thruster pack built into the spinal plating thrums and throbs with gravity warping power. These powerful suits of occult-tech powered armor are used as close air support with deadly results.

The Deadwing Shell is a set of +4 deathless grade II powered armor of determination. The Deadwing Shell provides the wearer with a 300 ft flight speed (good) with a +15 bonus on Fly checks.

Weapons

The Deadwing Shell is equipped with a set of +1 wrist rockets of infinite ammunition built into the shoulders, and an integrated +3 sniper railgun of infinite ammunition as a main gun. The weapon is connected to the armor by a black chrome power supply cord.

Construction

Detective's Suit

Aura moderate divination CL 5th

Slot armor Price 17,650 gp (DC 28) Weight 2 lbs

This somber black, double-breasted suit is cut in a funeral style. Heavy brass buttons on the front and multiple brass cufflinks are polished bright against the heavy, ebony wool.

The Detective's Suit is considered +2 cloth armor, though it is treated as a school uniform for the purposes of magical accessories. While wearing the detective's suit, the character receives a +4 bonus on Perception checks made to find forensic evidence of a crime; he is entitled to make Perception checks any time he merely comes within 10 ft of a potential clue, as if actively searching.

Once per day, the wearer can use Zone of Truth, but this spell can only be triggered in a specific area that must be connected to law enforcement. For example, the wearer could trigger this ability in a particular interrogation room or detective's office, a particular prison cell or the like. The particular location is specified when the Detective's Suit is first enchanted, and cannot thereafter be changed. The location is known to the wearer by a small tag sewn into the inside breast pocket.

GAMBESON

Renaissance knights wore a thick, padded gambeson (or arming doublet) beneath their heavy armor to increase their comfort in the steel a little bit, and provide an extra margin of protection. Modern powered armor pilots wear similar gambesons- high-tech, Kevlar-woven, breathable fabric shirts- beneath their own ultra-tech plate. Modern gambesons are tightly fitted, long-sleeved tunics that fully enclose the torso.

Similar Items

Gambeson can also be crafted as tabard for powered armor instead. These durable armor-weave tunics are dyed in bright heraldic motifs and incorporate instantly recognizable iconic images and colors. Armored pauldrons attach to the armor's shoulder plates magnetically to secure an armored tabard. While a tabard is worn outside powered armor, and a gambeson is worn beneath, both versions of the items occupy the body slot and function pretty much identically.

Gambeson, Body Intelligence

Aura faint transmutation CL 3rd

Slot body Price 3,300 gp (DC 22) Weight 1-2 lbs

This body-hugging black gambeson has an inner layer woven with neural interface circuits that read the subtle pre-movements of the pilot's musculature, vastly increasing their powered armor's reaction time.

Future Wear is a +1 school uniform.

Future Wear includes a built-in palmtop computer as a mundane accessory. In addition, a small detector jewel on one lapel (or built into a cufflink) begins chiming and glows faintly in the presence of radiation, with the glow and audible alarm growing louder and brighter the closer or more intense the radiation source is.

Gambeson, Flight Guidance

Aura strong transmutation CL 10th

Slot body Price 21,600gp (DC 29) Weight 1-2 lbs

This pale blue gambeson has a white glyph, like a bird in flight, on one breast.

When worn with any grade of powered armor, the wearer gains a +4 competence on Fly checks, and does not apply their armor's check penalty on Fly checks.

Once per day, if the powered armor is not already flight capable, the wearer can call upon the Flight Guidance Gambeson to grant themselves and the armor a Flight speed of 500 ft (good) for up to ten minutes. If the powered armor possesses an existing flight speed, the Flight Guidance Gambeson can increase it by 500 ft (and to good) for the spell's duration.

Construction

Gambeson, Fortification

Aura strong abjuration CL 13th

Slot body Price 1,500 gp (DC 19) Weight 1-2 lbs

This reinforced, black and violet spider-silk gambeson is heavily layered, and incorporates slip-in ceramic and plastic trauma plates, making it very much a bulletproof vest worn under powered body armor.

When worn with any grade of powered armor, the Fortification Gambeson provides the armor with the light fortification armor property. If the powered armor already has any Fortification property, when worn with this gambeson, it improves by one step, to a maximum of heavy fortification.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, limited wish

Cost 750 gp (DC 17)

When worn with any grade of powered armor, the Body Intelligence Gambeson provides the wearer with a +2 competence bonus on REF Saves.

Similar Items

The thickly ribbed, grey and crimson Body Augmentation Gambeson and is constructed using bear's endurance. Nutrient drips and self-adjusting pressure pads protect vital organs and reduce fatigue. The wearer gains +2 temporary Hit Points per HD when wearing this gambeson.

Gasmask, Dragon's Breath

Aura moderate conjuration and evocation CL 7th

This modern military gas-mask has enlarged, oblate filter canisters painted a gleaming, metallic red. Flammability warnings written in an ancient draconic script in black ink decorate the left-most filter canister.

While wearing the Dragon's Breath Gasmask, the character becomes immune to inhalation poisons and disease. Once per day, the wearer can breathe out a 30 ft cone of fire that inflicts 7d6 fire damage (REF DC 14 half).

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, fireball, neutralize poison

Cost 5,700 gp (DC 24)

Gasmask, Forensic

Aura moderate conjuration CL 7th

Slot head Price 9,200 gp (DC 25) Weight 2 lbs

This slim, black rubber gas mask is fed from a tiny oxygen tank and filter system built into a walk-man sized belt unit.

While wearing the Forensic Gasmask, the character becomes immune to inhalation poisons and disease. In addition, the wearer gains a +5 competence bonus on Heal and Perception checks made to forensically examine a corpse. Though protected by the airtight mask, the wearer gains the scent special quality, and can detect the presence of any buried corpse within 90 ft as per the gravelight spell. In this case, the information is conveyed via scent cues rather than visual cues.

Construction

Requirements Craft Wondrous Items, neutralize poison, gravelight

Cost 4,600 gp (DC 23)

Gasmask, Liberator's

Aura strong evocation CL 7th

Slot head Price 13,400 gp (DC 27) Weight 2 lbs

This battered military surplus gasmask, probably of Vietnam or Korean War vintage at best, has been painted with protest slogans using tempera paint and nail polish. This gasmask is a potent occult weapon against unjust authority.

While wearing the Liberator's Gasmask, the character becomes immune to inhalation poisons and disease. While in an area filled with any form of inhalation poison, the Liberator's Gasmask bestows the anarchic and holy properties upon the wearer's unarmed strikes, natural weapon attacks, and improvised weapons attacks.

Construction

Girl's Armor

Aura faint transmutation CL 6th

Slot armor Price 14,450 gp (DC 27) Weight negligible

This light spandex body stocking is mostly white with hot pink detailing, gauntlets, boots and collar. Sometimes a stereotypically feminine motif, like a heart, musical note or other glyph is worn on the breast and sleeve. Some versions of the armor substitute a warm color like yellow, gold or orange for the pink.

Girl's Armor is a +2 second skin.

While wearing Girl's Armor, the wearer becomes more stereotypically feminine, in a way that not only enhances their natural aptitudes but provides a solid defensive benefit.

The character becomes proficient in all one handed simple and martial ranged weapons, and with the following melee weapons, if not already so: dagger, sai, nunchucks, quarterstaff, as well as similar weapons to these, such as combat balanced daggers or a collapsible staff.

She is treated as if she possessed the following feats: Combat Expertise, Defensive Martial Arts, Dodge, Improved Disarm. The character gains a +4 competence bonus on the following skills: Acrobatics, Sense Motive, Perception, Use Magic Device. The wearer gains a +2 luck bonus on all saving throws.

However, the wearer becomes less adept at making direct, violent attacks. She suffers a -2 morale penalty on attack rolls with all weapons other than those specified above, and suffers a -4 penalty to her Initiative score. Half the damage inflicted by a successful attack with a weapon other than those listed above or by her innate abilities, is considered non-lethal damage instead.

Special: Only female creature can benefit from wearing Girl's Armor.

Helmet, Bane

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot head Price 4,000 gp (DC 23) Weight 5 lbs

This fully enclosed helmet is a metallic midnight-blue with a translucent golden faceplate. Usually, slogans promising violent death to the enemies of mankind are painted on the side of the helmet, at the wearer's left temple, while a crude doodle of some dead alien is painted on the other temple.

While wearing the Bane Helmet, all the wearer's weapons, as well as any vehicle mounted or artillery weapons under the wearer's direct control gain the bane magical weapon property. The exact bane is chosen by the creator, and is reflected in the helmet graffiti.

This helmet can attach to any suit of armor with the Space Suit property and preserves that property.

Helmet, Combative

Aura faint transmutation CL 3rd

Slot head Price 6,000 gp (DC 24) Weight 2 lbs

This thickly padded fighting helmet is similar to those worn by amateur boxers and martial artists during training. The padding is a dull grayish brown with a single spot of color on the forehead guard: a small, bright orange circle inside a larger crimson or maroon bull's eye.

While wearing a Combative Helmet, the character is treated as possessing the Improved Unarmed Strike feature, and gains a +2 enhancement bonus on Combat Maneuver checks made to grapple.

Helmet, FutureWar

Aura faint transmutation CL 5th

Slot head Price 6,500 gp (DC 24) Weight 4 lbs

This fully enclosed military helmet has a transparent amber visor that can be sealed for complete environmental protection, and is painted in military camo patterns.

The FutureWar Helmet provides the wearer with proficiency with all forms of armor and with shields. In addition the armor provides the wearer with the Improved Initiative feat.

Special: If the FutureWar Helmet is worn with FutureWar Battledress, the wearer can change the camo pattern and the suit's designated environment as a full round action. Camo pattern changes begin in the helmet and then flow down throughout the armor. Such changes are permanent until the wearer uses this synergistic ability to change the suit's environmental preference again.

Helmet, Poly-Visual

Aura moderate divination CL 6th

Slot none Price 45,000 gp (DC 29) Weight 5 lbs

This oval helm has no obvious seams when fully sealed. It is a reflective dark-mirrored chrome ovoid atop a set of advanced body armor, revealing nothing of the person beneath.

These helmets can attach to any armor with the Space Suit property, sealing perfectly with the suit, and have no effect if worn without armor with this property. While worn, all weapons concealed by mundane means within a 30 ft cone become visible as harsh yellow wireframe images superimposed on the wearer's field of vision. This effect offers no saving throw, but is subject to spell resistance. If this effect fails to penetrate a creature's spell resistance, bright yellow pixels and 'garbage data' appear on the wearer's field of vision near the creature.

For up to ten minutes per day, the wearer can touch a concealed stud on their temple, allowing the Poly-Visual Helmet to function as a ring of x-ray vision. These minutes need not be consecutive, but must be taken in 1 minute increments.

Finally, by touching another concealed stud, the wearer can activate or deactivate night-vision mode, gaining Darkvision 90 ft and lowlight vision.

Aura strong telepathy CL 13th

Slot head Price 109,200 gp (DC 34) Weight 5 lbs

This fully enclosed tactical helmet obscures the wearer's face behind ebony mirror-glass. The helmet itself is glossy, iridescent black, and the frame around reflective visor is a striking crimson. An outsized, golden rank insignia is worn on the forehead.

The Street Judge's helmet places the wearer under a constant personal barred mind effect. However, the wearer cannot manifest psionic powers, expend psionic focus or otherwise use personal psionic abilities while the helmet is worn. This helmet can attach to any suit of armor with the Space Suit property and preserves that property.

Aura strong transmutation CL 10th

Slot armor, body and head Price 70,500 gp (DC 33)

Weight 10 lbs

The Night Skin is a thin yet durable body sleeve, black and shining like obsidian. A thin cowl and mask, made of the same glossy black synthetics covers the face, but clings tightly to muscle and flesh. At the major joints and the gloves and tabi-like boots, the Night Skin has the texture of naked muscle. The Night Skin clings so tightly, normal clothing and magic items in the body slot cannot be worn beneath.

The Night Skin is a +4 balanced, brawling sprint suit-III utility bodystocking of greater shadow. The Night Skin's integrated filtration mask provides the armor with the CBR Resistant mundane armor property.

The Night Skin's wearer is under a constant featherfall effect. Up to three times per day, the wearer can cause the armor to sprout short, crimson gliding wings connecting the torso to the arms, which grant the armor a Flight speed of 120 ft (good), for up to 10 minutes per activation. Slot armor Price 3,600 gp (DC 22) Weight 8 lbs

This tightly fitted black and crimson leather corset incorporates the modular load-bearing rigging of a military tac-vest, and though the seductive design exposes a lot of cleavage, the occult energies swirling around the armor mean protection isn't compromised.

The Tactical Corset is a +1 tactical ballistic vest. The armor is considered to have the Near Nudity armor property.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, eagle's splendor

Cost 1,800 gp (DC 20)

Tactical Loadout Vest

Aura faint conjuration CL 5th

Slot armor Price 19,000 gp (DC 28) Weight 12 lbs

This midnight-black tactical vest has eight full ammunition pouches made of red ballistic fabric arranged in two vertical columns along the breast plate. When the vest's power is called upon, all eight ammo pouches pulse briefly in sequence, red flames against black Kevlar.

The Tactical Loadout Vest is a +2 tactical ballistic vest. The wearer can use reload! at will, but only to reload weapons they are personally wielding at the time.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, reload!

Cost 9,500 gp (DC 25)

Tanker

Aura strong universal CL 13th

Slot armor and helmet Price 102,000 gp (DC 34)

Weight 50 lbs

You want the absolutely, positively heaviest armor in known space, and don't care you're packing armor that masses more than a small motorcycle? Than the Tanker is for you. This ultra-heavy body armor rig protects every inch of the wearer's body, head to toe, in multiple overlapping layers of 2 inch thick blast and ballistic-proof laminate. A heavy gorget adds an additional layer of paranoid protection to the fully enclosed military helm.

The Tanker is a +3 brawling forced entry unit of determination and heavy fortification.

(The Tanker has the brawling property, despite the suit being heavy armor, just because the idea of an unstoppable SWAT-team juggernaut beating the shit out of an entire adventuring party thanks to this suit appeals to me.)

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, breath of life, bull's strength, limited wish

Cost 51,000 gp (DC 21)

Tanker Shield

Aura moderate transmutation CL 8th

Slot shield Price 13,150 gp (DC 25) Weight 25 lbs

The same ugly yet imminently practical ash-black as The Tanker, this SWAT-style shield is designed to take one hell of a pounding.

The Tanker Shield is a +2 balanced, bashing tactical shield.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, bull's strength, cat's grace

Cost 6,575 gp (DC 24)

Voyager's Jacket

Aura faint divination CL 3rd

Slot armor Price 2,550gp (DC 21) Weight 2 lbs

This light brown leather jacket has the logo of a major aerospace industry or stellar exploration megacorp emblazoned on the back. The leather is worn and rumpiled, flaking away in places, but though the jacket looks weathered, it's still got lightyears of service left in it.

The Voyager's Jacket is a +1 leather jacket.

While wearing the jacket, the character gains a +1 competence bonus on Pilot checks made to control air and space vehicles, as well as Appraise checks and Knowledge (local and technology) checks made concerning the aerospace industry, related megacorps and alien technology.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, timely inspiration

Cost 1,275 gp (DC 18)

MAGICAL WEAPONS

Acrobat's Staff

Aura moderate transmutation CL 5th

Slot none Price 26,750 gp (DC 29) Weight 2 lbs

This silvery, modular battle staff is hollow and made from light yet durable aircraft aluminum. Textured plastic grips in purple or burgundy are spaced where the wielder's hands would be as she wields the staff in battle.

The Acrobat's Staff is a +1 advancing collapsible staff. While the Acrobat's Staff is wielded in at least one hand, the wielder gains a +4 enhancement bonus to her DEX Score. The staff's wielder may use her DEX modifier for attacks with it, even though the Acrobat's Staff is not a light weapon.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, cat's grace
Cost 13,375 gp (DC 27)

Adventurer's Blaster

Aura faint transmutation CL 4th

Slot weapon Price 11,000 gp (DC 26) Weight 2 lbs

This retro-futuristic laser blaster has a fat, oval lasing chamber and long needle like barrel. Everything's gleaming silver chrome with a set of short, winged sights. The weapon looks ostentatious, cheesy yet somehow dramatic.

The Adventurer's Blaster is a +2 spacer's blaster of infinite ammunition. While wielding the Adventurer's blaster, the character receives a +1 luck bonus on all saving throws.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, infinite ammunition, resistance
Cost 6,500 gp (DC 24)

Adventuring Uzi

Aura moderate transmutation CL 7th

Slot weapon Price 26,000 gp (DC 29) Weight 8 lbs

This diffidently-maintained Uzi submachine gun has a colorful red and orange bandana tied around the grip. Despite the fact the weapon is worn and a little beat-up, it can still blaze away with rapid fire precision.

The Adventuring Uzi is a +1 Uzi of speed. While wielding or carrying the weapon, the shooter gains a +1 luck bonus on all saving throws.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, bless, haste
Cost 13,000 gp (DC 27)

Anti-Cyber 5.7mm SMG

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot weapon Price 10,600 gp (DC 26) Weight 2.5 lbs

This well-balanced, nano-assembled submachine gun is equipped with smart-targeting systems intended to put a well-trained soldier on a competitive level with a full conversion cyborg war machine.

The Anti-Cyborg 5.7mm SMG is a +2 cyborg-bane next-gen 5.7mm SMG. The weapon's bane property activates against creatures with the Cyborg subtype.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, summon monster I
Cost 5,300 gp (DC 23)

Anti-Cyber Arms

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot weapon Price 6,400 gp (DC 24) Weight 4 lbs

Like the Anti-Cyber 5.7mm SMG, this well balanced, carbon-nanotube fighting staff is designed to allow a well-trained human soldier to take out a heavily armored cyborg war machine...and make the take-down look easy.

The Anti-Cyber Arms is a +1 cyborg-bane, cyborg-defiant quarterstaff. This weapon has the defiant property, normally reserved for armor. Both the weapon's bane and defiant properties activate against creatures with the Cyborg subtype.

Similar Items

This weapon can be based on a collapsible baton, collapsible staff or tonfa base weapon rather than a traditional quarterstaff at no real change in creation cost or purchase price. All three versions of the weapon are equally common.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, summon monster I

Cost 10,625 gp (DC 26)

Anti-Cyber Striking Gloves

Aura moderate evocation CL 8th

Slot hands/weapon Price 6,750 gp (DC 24) Weight negligible

Anti-Cyber Striking Gloves are heavily padded, nanite-infused fighting gloves. The faux leather is a pristine white, while the reinforced knuckles are shiny black.

Anti-Cyber Striking Gloves are +1 cyborg-bane, mighty cleaving nanoweave combat gloves. The weapon's bane property activates against creatures with the Cyborg subtype.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, divine power, summon monster I

Cost 3,375 gp (DC 22)

Boarding Axe

Aura faint transmutation CL 5th

Slot weapon Price 22,100gp (DC 29) Weight 6 lbs

This heavy, stainless steel designed specifically to chew through starship hulls. The thick, textured white plastic grip fits easily in spacesuit gauntlets. The heavy, angular battleaxe has a specially reinforced, serrated cutting edge lined with industrial diamond grit.

The Boarding Axe is a +2 advancing battleaxe.

If the wielder places the Boarding Axe against a starship's hull, the weapon splits apart on previously unseen seams, forming an airlock in the hull as per the spell, boarding lock. The Boarding Axe remains in airlock configuration until it is pulled free from the hull as a standard action, whereupon it resumes its axe configuration.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, boarding lock, feather step

Cost 11,050 gp (DC 26)

Crash Discus

Aura moderate divination CL 6th

Slot weapon Price 36,000 gp (DC 30) Weight 1 lb

This glowing hard-light discus is a self-projected force field wrapped around a data-load of viruses and dumb-AI malware that can inflict some serious harm against artificially intelligent and heavily cyborged adversaries.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, summon monster I

Cost 3,200 gp (DC 22)

Anti-Cyber Blade

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot none Price 21,250 gp (DC 29) Weight 3 lbs

Highly classified Anti-Cyber weapons are usually often wielded by elite police and military squads tasked with taking down heavily armed and nearly invulnerable full conversion cyborgs. The Anti-Cyber Blade is a high-tech, matte black vibro-blade nearly a meter long.

The Anti-Cyber Blade is a +3 cyborg-bane high frequency sword. The weapon's bane property activates against creatures with the Cyborg subtype.

The Crash Discus is a +2 construct-bane, high tech-bane pulse chakram of distance. In addition to Constructs, the weapon's bane property also activates against creatures with the following subtypes: Android, Battlechanger, Cyborg, Mecha, POETICA, Robot.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, clairvoyance/clairaudience, datawipe, summon monster I
Cost 18,000 gp (DC 28)

Code Cutter

Aura faint conjuration CL 8th

Slot none Price 32,500 gp (DC 30) Weight 1 lb

This impressive blade has a hard light cutting edge that can vary in thickness, at the user's command, from 4-10 inches in width. The non-physical blade is a flat plane of cutting data, glowing sapphire and sparking with viral code that forms circuit patterns within the energy field.

The Code Cutter functions as a +3 valiant, high tech-bane quantum sword. The weapon's bane property activates against creatures with the following subtypes: Android, Battlechanger, Cyborg, Mecha, POETICA, Robot. The weapon's valiant property only activates under one of two conditions. Either the wielder must possess one or more of the subtypes mentioned above, or the challenge's target must possess one or more of these subtypes.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, datawipe, summon monster I, true strike
Cost 16,250 gp (DC 28)

Cyber-Ninja's Katana

Aura moderate transmutation CL 10th

Slot weapon Price 25,000 gp (DC 29) Weight 2 lbs

This futuristic katana is forged on a molecular level by assembler nanites. The blade is gleaming silver, the hilt and cross guard a bright silver-white polymer. The cutting edge of the katana is delineated by a wave-like pattern, and this edge glows a pale cobalt.

The Cyber-Ninja's Katana is a +3 keen high frequency sword.

While wielding the Cyber-Ninja's Katana, the character may use their DEX modifier rather than their STR modifier to modify attack rolls with the weapon, even though it is not a light weapon.

Special: If the Cyber-Ninja's Katana is wielded by a character also wearing Cyber-Ninja's Armor, the weapon is treated as being a +3 vorpal high frequency sword instead.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, cat's grace, keen edge

Cost 12,500 gp (DC 26)

Cybertaker Sickle

Aura strong transmutation CL

Slot weapon Price 37,600 gp (DC 31) Weight 2 lbs

This sickle marries ancient and new- a wooden shaft wrapped in leather at least a century old, with a blade of light burning with ancient Mediterranean sigils. Junked circuit components hang from a leather thong, like 22nd century fetishes. Senior Covenguard, especially those who are the sons and husbands of Strega carry these blades, which can carve the steel from a cyborg and reveal the flesh that once was.

The Cybertaker Sickle is a +1 brilliant energy sickle. On a confirmed critical hit against any target enhanced by cybernetics, this weapon nullifies a single cybernetic implant, removing it from the body and replacing it with the new organic tissue and organs, as per the spell regenerate humanity. Implants with the highest Drain cost are affected first, with weapons always being affected before defenses, which in turn are affected before sensors and gadgets. Prosthetics are affected last of all.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, continual flame, gaseous form, regenerate humanity

Cost 18,800 gp (DC 28)

Damage Control Axe

Aura moderate transmutation CL 5th

Slot weapon Price 41,000 gp (DC 31) Weight 6 lbs

This electrically powered hand axe is painted in eye-catching black and yellow chevrons and has an unusually forward-swept ergonomic shape. These weapons are often kept in starship damage control lockers, or issued to emergency response crews- especially those dealing with chemical leaks and dangerous plasma fires.

The Damage Control Axe is a +1 neutralizing chain axe. When the weapon is held in hand, it provides the user with Acid Resist 10 and Fire Resist 10.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, purify food and drink, resist energy

Cost 20,500 gp (DC 28)

Datawiper

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot weapon Price 20,000 gp (DC 28) Weight 2 lbs

The Datawiper is a slimline energy pistol with a silvery sheen. A holographic ring of constantly changing machine-code data slowly rotates around the weapon, just a few millimeters forward of the sleek trigger guard.

The Datawiper is a +2 high-tech bane spacer's blaster.

The weapon's bane property also activates against creatures with the following subtypes: Android,

Battlechanger, Cyborg, Mecha, POETICA, Robot. If the weapon scores a critical hit against any target with one of these subtypes, the target must succeed at a DC 14 WILL Save or become confused for 1d4 rounds. This ability affects even creatures normally immune to confusion.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, feblemind, datawipe, summon monster I

Cost 10,000 gp (DC 26)

Death Lash

Aura strong necromancy and transmutation CL 18th

Slot weapon Price 77,000 gp (DC 33) Weight 1 lb

This weapon consists of a thick, cylindrical handguard and hilt until the whip is activated- an endlessly twisting, crackling line of crimson energy. The lashes of the whip are spasmodic and abrupt, like high speed photography of a lightning flash that is missing frames, here and there. The air stinks of burning circuitry and ozone when the weapon is active.

The Death Lash is a +3 vorpal monowhip of distance.

The Death Lash has a maximum range of 30 ft (rather than 15 ft as normal for most whips). Once per day, as part of an attack action, the wielder can make a single whip attack with a maximum range of 100 ft.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, circle of death, clairvoyance/clairaudience, keen edge

Cost 38,500 gp (DC 31)

Defender 4600

Aura moderate divination CL 6th

Slot weapon Price 7,000 gp (DC 25) Weight 2 lbs

This angular and extremely futuristic laser pistol is made of glossy black and red plastic. A selector slider near the trigger guard allows the weapon to fire in lethal or non-lethal modes.

The Defender 4600 is a +1 merciful spacer's blaster of distance.

Similar Items

The slightly more powerful Defender 4800 has a similar style to the 4600, and is a +1 merciful smuggler's blaster of distance instead. The Defender 4800's purchase price is 7,500 gp (DC 25).

The more advanced and far less common Defender 5000 has a similar look, but is a +1 merciful disintegrator pistol of distance. The Defender 5000's purchase price is 13,500 gp (DC 27).

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, cure light wounds, clairvoyance/clairaudience

Cost 3,500 gp (DC 22)

Defensive Tonfa

Aura faint conjuration and transmutation CL 5th

Slot weapon Price 6,000 gp (DC 24) Weight 1 lb

This modern fighting tonfa has a striking surface molded from high-impact, high-visibility orange polymer and a sure-grip textured black handle. The Defensive Tonfa allows the wielder to kick as much ass as needed, without the risk of a wild swing turning a brawler into a murderer.

The Defensive Tonfa is a +1 countering, merciful tonfa.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, cat's grace, cure light wounds

Cost 3,000 gp (DC 22)

Depressor Pistol

Aura moderate enchantment CL 8th

Slot weapon Price 68,000 gp (DC 32) Weight 4 lbs

This petite, psi-tech weapon does little physical harm, but can cleanly and decisively end a battle. The energy weapon is seemingly delicate, small enough to fit in a child's palm, but is more durable than it looks.

The Depressor Pistol is a +1 merciful snub-nosed ion pistol.

A target hit with the Depressor Pistol must succeed at a DC 16 WILL Save or be affected by crushing despair. A target that successfully saves against this effect cannot be affected by the Depressor Pistol for 24 hours.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, crushing despair, cure light wounds

Cost 34,000 gp (DC 30)

Exterminator Rig

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot weapon Price 18,500 gp (DC 28) Weight 50 lbs

This extremely heavy-duty military energy weapon is deployed with squads facing the worst and most entrenched alien threats. The long, heat-resistant barrel is graffitied with violent slogans promising death to xenopredators of all kinds.

The Exterminator Rig is a +2 aberration-bane, vermin-bane tracker gun.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, summon monster I

Cost 9,250 gp (DC 25)

Exterminator Rifle

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot weapon Price 6,750 gp (DC 24) Weight 25 lbs

Not every soldier can be equipped with an Exterminator Rig, so these heavy-duty military plasma rifles are a stopgap measure between the massive firepower offered by the bulky Rig, and not having any occult-tech firepower at all. Like the Rig, this weapon is usually graffitied with anti-alien slogans on the barrel and butt stock.

The Exterminator Rifle is a +1 aberration-bane, vermin-bane military plasma rifle.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, summon monster I

Cost 3,375 gp (DC 22)

Forgehead

Aura strong transmutation CL 16th

Slot weapon Price 91,600 gp (DC 33) Weight 50 lbs

The Forgehead is a goliath, ultra-tech warhammer whose faceted, rectangular hammerhead floats several inches above the fully metallic shaft, tethered by unbreakable gravitic and magnetic forces. The Forgehead is hot to the touch, and the hammer head glows with a golden inner light. The weapon is forged from a reflective golden alloy.

The Forgehead is a +4 construct-bane, high-tech bane gravity hammer. The weapon's second bane property also activates against creatures with the following subtypes: Android, Battlechanger, Cyborg, Mecha, POETICA, Robot. The Forgehead grants the wielder a +10 competence bonus on Craft (cybernetic, mechanical and electronic) checks.

Special: If the Forgehead is wielded by any creature with the Battlechanger subtype, the character may cast transmetalization up to five times per day, and mass transmetalization once per day.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, mass transmetalization summon monster I

Cost 45,800 gp (DC 31)

FutureWar Dagger

Aura strong abjuration

CL 10th Slot weapon

Price 19,500 gp (DC 28)

Weight 1 lb

This matte grey fighting knife is designed in a 'talon' style, with a wide metal thumbhole at the end of the hilt. Elite soldiers and mercenaries throughout the multiverse carry one of these lethal blades as a secondary weapon for silent operations.

The FutureWar Dagger is a +2 defiant combat balanced dagger. A creature struck by the FutureWar Dagger must succeed at a WILL Save (DC 10 + the damage inflicted) or be silenced for one round. The effects of multiple strikes extend the duration.

Similar Items

Some soldiers prefer a more traditional dagger or machete (short sword) base for this weapon, and more unusual or exotic weapon bases, such as sai or katar (punching dagger), are also possible. Changing the base weapon to a different type of non-powered, low-tech melee weapon affects nothing else about this magic item's pricing or construction requirements.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, Heroic Defiance, break enchantment, stabilize, silence
Cost 9,750 gp (DC 25)

FutureWar Rifle

Aura moderate divination CL 6th
Slot weapon Price 12,700 gp (DC 26) Weight 13 lbs
When this matte grey weapon is powered down, it collapses into a meter long brick that more than anything else, looks like a big plastic 2x4. When the shooter's hand approaches the touch-sensitive trigger system, the advanced plasma rifle 'wakes up' and the modular components slide out to form an ergonomic buttstock, trigger guard, angular nightvision scope and gun barrel. The firing barrel is heat-resistant ceramic and transparent aluminum that glows with a rancid yellow light. Versions of this weapon are standard occult-tech equipment for elite soldiers throughout the multiverse.

The FutureWar Rifle is a +1 plasma rifle of distance and unlimited ammunition. While wielding this enchanted rifle, the shooter gains a +3 competence bonus on Stealth and Survival checks, as well as on Perception checks made to spot traps or IEDs. The shooter is allowed a Perception check to detect such a hazard any time he merely comes within 30 ft of one, even if not actively searching.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magical Arms and Armor, blast sweep, clairaudience/clairvoyance, infinite ammunition
Cost 6,350 gp (DC 24)

FutureWar SMG

Aura moderate divination CL 10th
Slot weapon Price 21,300 gp (DC 29) Weight 2 lbs
This matte grey sub-machinegun is built along similar lines to the FutureWar Rifle, and in its inactive state, is merely an enigmatic brick of grayish polymer. When activated, the weapon becomes a blunt, well-balanced SMG. The weapon's barrel is recessed into the casing, giving it a flattened, blunt appearance.

The FutureWar SMG is a +2 stalking advanced SMG of infinite ammunition. While wielded, this weapon provides the shooter with a +3 competence bonus on Stealth and Survival checks.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, hunter's eye, infinite ammunition, true strike
Cost 10,650 gp (DC 26)

Gauntlet, Gateway

Aura strong conjuration CL 14th
Slot weapon Price 230,000 gp (DC 37) Weight 5 lbs
The Gateway Gauntlet is a milk white, slightly tapered cylinder fit tightly over the shooter's dominant hand. A trio of glossy blue-steel pincers protrude from the barrel, and 'weave' colorful strands of aquamarine, blue and violet energy into a coherent energy beam each time the trigger is touched.

The Gateway Gauntlet is a +3 blaster gauntlet. Unlike normal Blaster Gauntlets, the Gateway Gauntlet inflicts force damage rather than fire damage.

The wearer's user can utilize a heavily modified form of phase door at will by firing the Gateway Gauntlet and creating a short range dimensional portal. Once a new portal is created by the Gateway Gauntlet, all previously created portals vanish. The portal created is visible to all, a glowing aperture in reality surrounded by a corona of cold light, and you can see through the portal even without passing through it.

Only the Gateway Gauntlet's wielder, and those he or she is in direct physical contact with at the moment of transition, can pass through this portal. Energy, however, can pass through the portal in both directions. For instance, an enemy can shoot at the portal's creator through the portal via spells, energy weapons or innate energy projection abilities. Fortunately, the Gauntlet's owner can at least shoot back.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, magic missile, phase door
Cost 115,000 gp (DC 34)

Gauntlet, Hunting

Aura faint conjuration CL 8th
Slot weapon Price 22,500 gp (DC 29) Weight 5 lbs
A wide variety of Hunting Gauntlets exist, differentiated by barrel color. Each weapon is a cylindrical tube that fits over the wearer's shooting hand and projects a powerful force beam.

All Hunting Gauntlets are +2 *-bane, *-bane blaster gauntlets of infinite ammunition. Each specific weapon corresponds to a specific two bane properties, and the weapon's color indicates its function.

If a Hunting Gauntlet is ever found as random treasure, you can roll 1D6 to determine the weapon's properties, or choose one.

- 1) Red Hunting Gauntlets: Are Animal and Magical Beast Bane weapons.
- 2) Orange Hunting Gauntlets: Are Aberration and Ooze Bane weapons.
- 3) Yellow Hunting Gauntlets: Are Ooze and Vermin Bane weapons.
- 4) Green Hunting Gauntlets: Are Dragon and Reptilian Bane weapons. The weapon's second bane property activates against creatures with the Reptilian subtype.
- 5) Blue Hunting Gauntlets: Are Construct and High-Tech Bane weapons. The weapon's second bane property also activates against creatures with the following subtypes: Android, Battlechanger, Cyborg, Mecha, POETICA, Robot.
- 6) Violet Hunting Gauntlets: Are Aberration and Undead Bane weapons.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, infinite ammunition, summon monster I

Cost 11,250 gp (DC 26)

Gauntlet, Sonic Mirage

Aura strong illusion CL 10th

Slot weapon Price 29,750 gp (DC 29) Weight 5 lbs

This silver and grey cylinder fits over the wearer's shooting hand, and terminates in an articulated projection disk, resembling a radio-telescope lens in miniature. Intense LED displays burn fire red along the sides of the weapon and near center of the energy emitter.

The Sonic Mirage Gauntlet functions as a +2 thundering blaster gauntlet.

Once per day, the wielder may use either shadow conjuration or shadow evocation via the Sonic Mirage gauntlet. These creations and effects always take the form of pinkish-red holograms, and have the sonic rather than the shadow descriptor.

Creatures and objects conjured via this effect inflict sonic damage rather than the base damage of creatures of their type, and any spell effect duplicated in this way always deals sonic damage. For example, a goblin 'conjured' with this effect would inflict sonic damage with its spear, and a fireball duplicated by this effect would deal sonic rather than fire damage. All creatures and objects conjured by the Sonic Mirage Gauntlet are themselves Vulnerable to sonic energy.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, blindness/deafness, shadow conjuration, shadow evocation

Cost 14,875 gp (DC 27)

Ghost-Hunter's Shotgun

Aura moderate conjuration CL 9th

Slot weapon Price 6,250 gp (DC 24) Weight 4 lbs

Sometimes the subtle rites of exorcism get set aside for brute-force solutions. The Ghost-Hunter's Shotgun is the most brute-force solution possible when it comes to incorporeal spirits. This ugly sawed off shotgun has crude holy symbols amateurishly carved into the cut-down wooden stock.

The Ghost-Hunter's Shotgun is a +1 ghost-touch, huntsman sawed-off shotgun. The weapon bestows the ghost touch property on any non-magical ammunition loaded into it.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, detect animals and plants, plane shift

Cost 3,125 gp (DC 22)

Great Soul Blade

Aura strong conjuration CL 12th

Slot weapon Price 35,000 gp (DC 30) Weight 8 lbs

A pulsing, square-cut bluish-white crystal the size of a grapefruit forms the central crossguard of this heavy, steel-alloy blade. The Great Soul Blade is double-edged, and the silvery metal never needs to be polished or sharpened to keep its fine edge. Angular runes run the length of the blade's central blood groove. When the wielder calls upon the sword's mystic power, blue flames run the two-meter length of the blade.

The Great Soul Blade is a +3 ki intensifying, lifesurging greatsword. A Monk may treat this weapon as a monk weapon in all respects.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, creator must be a Monk, Channeled Smite, cure serious wounds, deathward, disrupt undead.

Cost 17,500 gp (DC 28)

Hacker's Katana

Aura moderate transmutation CL 9th

Slot weapon Price 5,050 gp (DC 23) Weight 6 lbs

The hilt of this modern recreation of a traditionally crafted katana is wrapped in breathable black pseudo-leather rather than manta leather. A simple pattern of bar-coded lines are pressed into the tang as a maker's mark: a binary code translation of the first sentence of the novel Snow Crash.

The Hacker's Katana is a +1 katana.

The wielder may use their INT modifier rather than their STR modifier with this weapon when determining to hit and damage bonuses. While the weapon is carried, the wielder gains a +5 competence bonus on Computer Use checks.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, bull's strength, hacker spark

Cost 2,525 gp (DC 21)

Heat Saber

Aura strong evocation CL 12th

Slot weapon Price 16,900 gp (DC 28) Weight 3 lbs

This long, single edged straight blade has molecular heating elements at the tip and cutting edge, visible as a complex meander- gleaming silver against the dull gunmetal of the blade, which flares with visible, white-hot heat when activated.

The Heat Saber is a +2 igniting gladius.

Similar Items

Virtually any melee weapon can be substituted for the gladius that is this weapon's base. Heat Tonfa and Heat Batons (built around a collapsing baton) are popular police and military weapons. Heat Rapier and Heat Longswords are popular, and stylish combat choices. Heat Maces are scary, brutal and very effective close combat weapons. These variants have virtually identical cost and construction requirements.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, fireball

Cost 8,450 gp (DC 25)

Ice Crawler Axe

Aura strong evocation CL 11th

Slot weapon Price 84,400 gp (DC 33) Weight 6 lbs

The Ice Crawler Axe is beloved of scavengers and ship-breakers prowling frozen hell-worlds and comets. This extremely heavy weapon takes the form of an adamant-tipped chainsaw with a blade nearly 1.5 meters long. White flame vents along the length of the blade add high-intensity heat to the weapon, while life-support enchantments keep the wielder alive even in hellholes approaching absolute zero.

The Ice Crawler Axe is a +2 flaming chain axe of greater cold resistance. The wielder does not need to make Acrobatics checks to cross frozen terrain, and can ignore 5 ft of difficult terrain caused by ice or snow per round.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, flame strike, resist energy, pass without trace

Cost 42,200 gp (DC 31)

Knuckle Bomber

Aura faint necromancy CL 5th

Slot none Price 4,800 gp (DC 23) Weight 2 lbs

This articulated fighting gauntlet incorporates a specially reinforced knuckleguard fitted with several dime-sized shaped charges designed to detonate at the moment of impact.

The Knuckle Bomber is a +1 thundering cestus.

Similar Items

The Powered Knuckle Bomber is a +1 thundering power cestus. Built upon a much more expensive base weapon, increase the purchase price and creation cost by +2,000 gp. Powered Knuckle Bombers are often paired with powered armor for additional strength enhancement. It's also possible to build Powered or non-powered Knuckle

Bombers that occupy the foot slot rather than the weapon slot, for martial artists specializing in kick-based styles.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, blindness/deafness

Cost 2,400 gp (DC 20)

Mecha-Hunter

Aura faint conjuration CL 8th

Slot weapon Price 32,000 gp (DC 30) Weight 25 lbs

This futuristic rocket launcher has the end of its twinned launch tubes painted in a hot red and gold check pattern. Black stenciled tanks and combat mecha, representing kills, are painted down the length of each tube.

The Mecha-Hunter is a +3 construct-bane, cunning anti-armor rocket launcher of infinite ammunition. The weapon's Bane property inflicts +3d6 damage against Constructs with the Mecha subtype, and +2d6 extra damage against all other Constructs. The weapon's cunning property is keyed to Knowledge (technology) or Knowledge (tactics).

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, infinite ammunition, summon monster I, true strike

Cost 16,000 gp (DC 32)

Nano-Sword

Aura moderate transmutation CL 10th

Slot weapon Price 21,600 gp (DC 29) Weight 2 lbs

A variety of arms manufacturers engineer Nano-Swords. Assembled on a molecular level by legions of clever nanites rather than traditionally forged, these weapons have a mono-molecular cutting edge of unparalleled sharpness. These ultra-sharp blades are gleaming greenish-silver that always shimmers wetly.

The Nano-Sword is a +3 keen fractal cutter.

The wielder is treated as if she possessed the Improved Sunder feat when attempting to sunder any external cybernetic system with the Nanotech tag.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, keen edge

Cost 10,800 gp (DC 26)

Nano-Sword, Vorpall

Aura strong necromancy and transmutation CL 18th

Slot weapon Price 61,250 gp (DC 32) Weight 2 lbs

Vorpall Nano-Swords are heavy, carbon-fiber blades with a mono-molecular edge. The blade's weight is kept down with a fine mesh pattern of cut-outs running the length of the blade.

The Nano-Sword is a +2 mighty cleaving vorpall fractal cutter.

The wielder is treated as if she possessed the Improved Sunder feat when attempting to sunder any external cybernetic system with the Nanotech tag.

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, circle of death, divine power, keen edge

Cost 30,625 gp (DC 30)

Neo-Knight's Axe

Aura faint necromancy CL 6th

Slot none Price 23,900 gp (DC 29) Weight 6 lbs

This heavy chain-axe has a baroque steel chassis riveted to the rear of the head, covering up the roaring engine that powers the cutting chain. A thick golden spike protrudes from each side of the weapon, promising death and pain, and a long golden chain dangles from the haft.

The Neo-Knight's Axe is a +3 cruel chain-axe.

When wielded by a character wearing any grade of powered armor, the Neo-Knight's Axe is treated as a light, one-handed weapon instead of a two-handed weapon. If wielded paired by a character wearing any grade of powered armor, the character is treated as possessing the Two Weapon Fighting feat.

Cost 11,950 gp (DC 26)

NERF Blaster

Aura strong abjuration CL 12th

Slot weapon Price 39,500 gp (DC 31) Weight 5 lbs

A bit of wry gamer's humor, combined with occult-technology creates a very effective magical blaster out of a children's toy. The NERF Blaster is exactly what the name implies, an enchanted foam-dart launcher, made out of primarily colored plastic, launching long foam-rubber missiles. The NERF Blaster is designed to incapacitate and weaken rather than kill outright, and is very effective if paired with allies wielding more traditionally lethal weapons.

The NERF Blaster functions as a +1 lesser designating, merciful, nullifying and phase locking military SMG.

The NERF Blaster cannot fire in lethal mode under any circumstance.

Cost 19,750 gp (DC 28)

Noisy Cicada Blaster

Aura strong evocation CL 12th

Slot weapon Price 23,750 gp (DC 29) Weight 1 lb

This embarrassingly tiny, dinky little blaster pistol packs a punch like a battleship's main armament.

The Noisy Cicada Blaster is a +1 igniting, thundering, viscous rainbow dart blaster. On a successful normal hit, this beast inflicts 2d3 force +2d6 fire +2d6 energy to the target and 1d6 damage to the shooter and it gets worse on a critical hit! Yes, it has the vicious property, normally reserved for melee weapons, because of the backwash from this insanely overcharged energy weapon.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, blindness/deafness, enervation, fireball

Cost 11,875 gp (DC 26)

Phase Nullifier

Aura moderate conjuration CL 9th

Slot weapon Price 28,150 gp (DC 29) Weight 2 lbs

This cumbersome and rather non-ergonomic blaster has a gleaming chrome finish. The weapon is a squared-off hunk of chrome and polymer, with a pair of blunt twin projector barrels and a wide, rear-swept pistol grip.

The Phase Nullifier is a +2 ghosttouch, shapechanger-bane, phase locking smuggler's blaster. The weapon's bane property activates against targets of the shapechanger subtype.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, dimensional anchor, plane shift, summon monster I

Cost 14,075 gp (DC 27)

Piledriver

Aura strong evocation CL 14th

Slot none Price 73,950 gp (DC 33) Weight 20 lbs

The exaggerated knuckle joints of this massive powered gauntlet are wasp yellow against the dingy grayish-black pigiron of the rest of the powerful robotic fist. Above the knuckles, a protruding wedge of steel like the point of a jackhammer is decorated with yellow and black hazard striping.

The Piledriver is a +4 impact power cestus. Once per day, the wielder can strike the ground to create an earthquake effect with an 80 ft radius.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, earthquake, giant form I

Cost 36,975 gp (DC 31)

Professional's Weapon

Aura moderate divination CL 6th

Slot none Price 23,200 gp (DC 29) Weight 8 lbs

Cold and tangible shadow-stuff has taken the form of an M-16 assault rifle. Wisps of darkness drift from the inky black barrel like smoke- light is dimmer and sounds are quieter in the presence of this weapon.

The Professional's Weapon is a +3 M-16A2 assault rifle of distance. While wielding or carrying the weapon, the wielder gains a +5 competence bonus on Stealth checks. The Professional's Weapon is completely silent, even when firing in full-auto mode. Light levels are worsened by one step within 10 ft of the weapon: bright illumination becomes standard, becomes dim, becomes darkness. The wielder can suppress or resume this property at will as a move-equivalent action.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, clairvoyance/clairaudience, invisibility, silence

Cost 11,600 gp (DC 26)

Quill Launcher

Aura moderate divination CL 6th

Slot weapon Price 7,175 gp (DC 25) Weight 2 lbs

This sleek, bio-organic pistol is tiny even in the hands of the smallest woman or youngest child, and is easily concealed. The weapon uses occult technology to instantly coalesce new needles from ambient pollution and water vapor, and uses chemically stimulated artificial muscles to fire the needles to incredible range.

The Quill Launcher is a +1 needler of distance and infinite ammunition. The weapon always produces needles coated with lactic retention enzyme poison. Subtle enchantments, combined with the weapon's small size and stealthy design provide the wearer with a +8 competence bonus on Sleight of Hand checks to conceal the Quill Launcher.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, clairvoyance/clairaudience, infinite ammunition

Cost 3,587 gp (DC 22)

Reentry Pistol

Aura moderate evocation CL 12th

Slot weapon Price 56,500 gp (DC 32) Weight 4 lbs

The Reentry Pistol is an extensively modified plasma pistol, whose grip and energy cell are sheathed in heat-resistant ceramic tiles, identical to those found on space shuttles.

The Reentry Pistol is a +2 flaming burst spacer's blaster. It inflicts 3d6 fire damage on a normal hit, or 3d6+1d10 fire damage on a confirmed critical hit. While wielding the Reentry Pistol, the character gains Fire Resistance 5

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, fireball, resist energy

Cost 28,250 gp (DC 29)

Ring, Blaster

Aura moderate abjuration CL 5th

Slot ring Price 3,200 gp (DC 22) Weight negligible

What looks like an ordinary wedding ring with a fine golden band and inset ruby is truly an advanced personal energy weapon.

The Blaster Ring functions as a +1 spacer's blaster. The weapon cannot be detected as such by any known scanner or divinatory magic.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, non-detection

Cost 1,600 gp (DC 19)

Scout-Sniper's Railgun

Aura moderate abjuration CL 12th

Slot none Price 97,500 gp (DC 34) Weight 30 lbs

This advanced railgun has auto-stabilizing systems and occult-tech accuracy guarantees built in. The buttstock is a shapeshifting memory metal that can change firmness, shape and even surface adhesion for accuracy in just about any position the shooter decides to fire from. The fold-down tripod can be configured in a variety of ways with just a few clicks and snaps.

The Scout-Sniper's Railgun is a +5 nimble sniper's railgun of distance.

The Scout-Sniper's Railgun does not suffer a penalty for shooting from a moving vehicle or while moving. While the weapon is wielded or carried, the shooter gains a +4 competence bonus on Stealth checks.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, bow spirit, clairvoyance/clairaudience

Cost 48,750 gp (DC 31)

Ship Ripper

Aura moderate transmutation CL 12th

Slot weapon Price 24,850 gp (DC 29) Weight 25 lbs

This massive axe has a whirling chain edge studded with inch long industrial diamonds sheathed in adamantine. The chain axe's casing is a sunfire gold, streaked with black hazard painting and splattered with grease and soot.

The Ship Ripper is a +2 adamantine wounding chain axe. When attacking any starship or other vehicle of at least Gargantuan size, multiply the damage inflicted by the Ship Ripper by 10!

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, bleed, *chainsaw hands

Cost 12,425 gp (DC 26)

Shredder Multi-Railgun

Aura strong transmutation CL 11th

Slot none Price 215,000 gp (DC 37) Weight 85 lbs

Built on the already impressive platform of a gatling railgun, the Shredder might be the most monstrously overpowered squad support weapon in known space. The cannon's eight rotating barrels are painted in alternating black and gold, like a wasp's thorax.

The Shredder Multi-Railgun is a +4 gatling railgun of infinite ammunition. Like all gatling railguns, the Shredder resolves its attacks as ranged touch attacks and ignores natural and equipment and shield bonuses to AC. However, the Shredder allows the wielder to make a free sunder attempt against the manufactured armor or shield of any target struck by the weapon. The Shredder's enchantment bonus is also applied to the wielder's CMB check to sunder.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, disintegrate, infinite ammunition

Cost 107,500 gp (DC 34)

Singularity Grenade (Cn)

Aura strong transmutation CL 12th

Slot weapon Price 3,600 gp (DC 22) Weight 1 lb

These deadly grenades are small triangular devices with pulsing violet energy visible beneath the glass-like housing. When the grenade is thrown, everything in the burst radius is sucked into a microscopic black hole that lasts for only a fraction of a second...barely long enough to utterly vaporize anything sucked in.

The Singularity Grenade is a grenade-like weapon that has a 10 ft range increment and a 20 ft burst radius. All creatures and objects within this radius are affected by disintegrate if they fail a DC 15 FORT Save.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, disintegrate
Cost 1,800gp (DC 20)

Slatewiper

Aura strong evocation CL 18th

Slot weapon Price 119,600 gp (DC 34) Weight 45 lbs

This truly oversized, prodigiously heavy gravity hammer's internal components are forged from rare-earth minerals mined in Earth's Yucatan Peninsula, where an asteroid impact brought an end to the age of the dinosaurs millions of years ago. The Slatewiper's striking surface is a hull-metal polygon which glows with intense and cold internal light.

The Slatewiper is a +5 invigorating, mighty cleaving gravity hammer. Once per day, the wielder can cast earthquake, by striking the Slatewiper to the ground.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, divine power, earthquake, good hope
Cost 59,800 gp (DC 32)

Street Judge's Enforcer

Aura faint transmutation CL 4th

Slot weapon Price 13,300 gp (DC 27) Weight 4.5 lbs

The Street Judge's Enforcer is a bulky personal energy pistol with a glossy black casing with the same harsh lines as Street Judge's Armor. A golden eagle badge is stamped into the contoured black pistol grip.

The Street Judge's Enforcer is a +2 jurist smuggler's blaster of infinite ammunition.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, owl's wisdom, infinite ammunition
Cost 6,850 gp (DC 24)

Street Judge's Machine Pistol

Aura strong evocation CL 12th

Slot weapon Price 61,250 gp (DC 32) Weight 3 lbs

The Street Judge's Machine Pistol is assembled from the same gloss-black alloy as the hardened plating of the Street Judge's Armor and matching helmet. A stylized eagle badge is stamped into the casing. The weapon glows with fiery internal light.

The Street Judge's Machine Pistol is a +3 igniting, nimble shot military SMG.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, bow spirit, fireball
Cost 30,625 gp (DC 30)

Street Judge's Skullbuster

Aura faint enchantment CL 5th

Slot weapon Price 16,500 gp (DC 28) Weight 1 lb

This polymer plastic fighting stick has a durable ebony shaft. The hilt is capped with a large and baroque silver eagle, which clutches the weapon in its talons.

The Street Judge's Skullbuster is a +2 invigorating shapememory truncheon.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, good hope.
Cost 8,250 gp (DC 25)

Super Scientific Railgun

Aura strong abjuration and conjuration CL 14th

Slot weapon Price 65,000 gp (DC 32) Weight 30 lbs

This unique railgun is the gleaming, glossy cloud-white of a new iPad, accented by cool-blue indicator lights, intuitive touch screen displays and control surfaces. It is clean, modern and rational...a perfect weapon against a world that is anything but.

The Super Scientific Railgun is a +3 axiomatic, dispelling burst sniper railgun of disruption.

Any non-lawful, outsider, fey or undead creature wielding the weapon suffers one negative level, which never results in actual level loss, but cannot be removed while the weapon is wielded.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, greater dispel magic, heal, order's wrath, creator must be lawful
Cost 32,500 gp (DC 30)

Tank-Killer Blade

Aura strong transmutation CL 10th

Slot weapon Price 18,000 gp (DC 28) Weight 8 lbs

The Tank-Killer Blade is goliath bastard sword forged from the recycled wing of an A-10 Thunderbolt ground-attack plane. These blades are usually hand-painted with the patriotic colors of the wielder's nation or military unit.

The Tank-Killer Blade is a +2 keen, impact bastard sword. The Tank-Killer Blade ignores Hardness when used against Constructs and vehicles of Size Huge or larger; it does not affect the Hardness or Large of smaller Constructs or vehicles.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, bull's strength, keen edge, righteous might, shatter

Cost 9,000 gp (DC 25)

Thunderstrike Blade

Aura faint necromancy CL 5th

Slot weapon Price 17,400 gp (DC 27) Weight 3 lbs

With a blade formed from a little over a meter of caged golden electricity, the Thunderstrike Blade is an especially impressive occult-tech weapon. The projector hilt is gilded and intricately carved, with a non-conductive rubberized grip.

The Thunderstrike Blade is a +2 thundering arc sword. When making a FORT Save to resist permanent deafness from the weapon's thundering property, cybernetic creatures add their Drain rating as a circumstance penalty on the saving throw.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, blindness/deafness

Cost 8,700 gp (DC 25)

Trailbreaker Blade

Aura moderate conjuration CL 8th

Slot weapon Price 16,000 gp (DC 27) Weight 2 lbs

This matte grey, sharply angled machete is often found in the hands of frontier explorers, first-wave colonists and terraformers. It is the perfect survival tool with which to challenge an alien eco-system.

The Trailbreaker Blade is a +2 animal-bane, plant-bane short sword.

While wielding the Trailbreaker Blade, the character gains a +2 enchantment bonus on FORT Saves against naturally occurring poisons. By penetrating an item of food or drink with the tip of the blade (slicing a cut of meat or piercing a melon, for instance) the blade can determine if that item is safe for the wielder to consume. If the touched food or drink is naturally toxic or harmful to the wielder, or is poisoned, pulsing crimson veins become briefly visible on the matte grey blade.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, delay poison, summon monster I

Cost 8,000 gp (DC 25)

Wargrinder

Aura moderate transmutation CL 10th

Slot weapon Price 33,000 gp (DC 30) Weight 32 lbs

Two weapons in one, each as ugly and brutal as war itself. The Wargrinder is a cut-down squad-support machine gun housed in a blunt, ergonomic chassis with an integrated chainsaw bayonet mounted beneath the barrel. The weapon is unpainted, dingy aluminum and steel, dirty with grit and dried blood.

The Wargrinder is two weapons in one, though the user can only operate one weapon at a time. Changing between weapon modes is an immediate action.

The Wargrinder's ranged option is a +2 nimble M-60 machinegun.

The Wargrinder's melee option is a +2 keen, wounding chainsaw.

Construction

Requirements Craft Magic Arms and Armor, bleed, bow spirit, keen edge

Cost 16,500 gp (DC 28)

MINOR AND MAJOR ARTIFACTS

This section details all the various artifact level items that could conceivably be discovered by star-crossing, Multiverse-exploring adventurers. The exact locations and capabilities of these items are shrouded in myth and oft-inaccurate legend or buried in forgotten relics aboard ruined stations.

These artifacts are grouped in the same categories as other magical items: magical costuming, magical weapons, consumable items and other wondrous items.

Rather than two sections describing major and minor artifacts, this chapter instead lists the artifact's type and relative rarity directly below the artifact's name. Of course, what it means for an artifact level item to be 'common' is purely in the game master's hands, but such an item is infinitely easier to find than a 'rare' artifact, which in turn is far more common than truly unique artifacts, which are often historic treasures beyond price. It can be a quest spanning an entire campaign to even catch a glimpse of one of the Multiverse's most unique artifacts....

ARTIFACT MAGICAL ARMORS AND COSTUMING

Dataward

Uncommon Minor Artifact

Aura strong abjuration and evocation CL 20th

Slot armor Weight 2 lbs

In its inactive state, the Dataward is a plain golden ring with a single band of bright white luminescence running along its circumference (and occupies the ring slot).

When twisted as a move-equivalent action, the Dataward explodes in a cascade of silvery light that takes the form of a glowing suit of ultra-advanced powered armor made out of pure force and illumination.

In its active state, the Dataward acts as a +4 ghost touch grade III powered armor. The armor has no armor check penalty, arcane failure chance and effectively no weight, and is considered a force effect. Thus, it blocks magic missiles, brilliant energy weapons and incorporeal touch attacks.

The Dataward is considered to be a smartlight, and is affected by spells and weapons specifically targeting smartlights. The Dataward and its wearer gain Vulnerability to Electricity.

If the Dataward is destroyed by such an effect, it cannot be summoned again for 72 hours. The Dataward can be summoned or dismissed at will. Each time it is summoned, the holographic armor appears with full HP.

Destruction

The Dataward focus ring can be destroyed by extremely high voltage (on the order of several million kilowatts) or intense magnetic fields, but is otherwise almost completely resistant to damage. If 'destroyed' in its armor form, the Dataward merely coalesces anew after less than a week of inactivity.

Star Jockey's Armor

Uncommon Minor Artifact

Aura overwhelming transmutation CL 30th

Slot armor and head Weight 50 lbs

This eerie, ebony armor is decorated with bio-mechanical flourishes and raised, rib-like decorations that ridge the torso and gird the limbs. A massive, bulbous helmet has featureless black eyes, vaguely insectoid in aspect. An elephantine tube connects the helmet to a strange device built into the torso. Originally sized for a now extinct species of giants, the Star Jockey's Armor resizes within minutes to fit a new wearer.

The Star Jockey's Armor is a +4 Space Suit of Greater Shadow and Invulnerability. The fine construction of this alien armor reduces the suit's armor check penalty to only -2 and its arcane failure chance to only 20%.

While wearing the Star Jockey's Armor, the wearer receives a +6 enhancement bonus to INT, similar to a headband of intellect. However, the wearer becomes cold, emotionless and almost sociopathic. She can not benefit from morale bonuses or beneficial mind-influencing effects, nor can she use the Aid Another action while wearing the Star Jockey's Armor.

Destruction

The Star Jockey's Armor can only be destroyed if the wearer willingly commits suicide by either poison or acid while wearing the armor. The armor melts away to stinking black goo when destroyed.

ARTIFACT MAGICAL WEAPONS

Meta Hand

Common Minor Artifact

Aura strong CL 20th

Slot weapon Weight 20 lbs

This goliath powered gauntlet pulses with emerald power, and the elongated, massive fingers of the gauntlet are green fire beyond the relatively small, metallic sheathes that actually protect the wearer's fingers.

When first discovered, a Meta Hand is curled tightly around itself, resembling a sphere of roiling green plasma wrapped around a sculpted spherical lattice of hard tech alloy. It requires a DC 28 WILL Save, made while touching the Meta Hand to attune the weapon to a new wielder. Failure results in the potential wielder being confused for 1d6 minutes and suffering 4d6 points of Force damage (WILL DC 20 half). Once attuned, the Meta Hand remains so until the wielder is slain, or remains out of contact with the device for longer than 24 hours.

The Meta Hand functions as a +4 ghost touch, guardian power cestus.

While wearing the Meta Hand, the wearer can use black tentacles, force punch, solid note, telekinesis, or telekinetic sphere, at will. All spell effects created by the Meta Hand have a luminous green glow as their visible manifestation, rather than the normal visual effects associated with the spell. While wearing the Meta Weapon, the wielder is surrounded by a bright green aura that functions as the Space Suit property. This aura sheds bright illumination in a 30 ft radius, which cannot be suppressed.

Destruction

The Meta Hand might be destroyed if a potential wielder rolls a natural 1 on their WILL Save to attune to the device and is slain by the resulting psychic feedback.

Star Edge

Uncommon Minor Artifact

Aura overwhelming evocation CL 25th

Slot weapon Weight 18 lbs

This heavy greatsword has the dramatically swooping edge of a falchion or kopesh. The blade, hilt and cross-guard are all dense grayish-silver alloy with an oily sheen. The cutting edge of the weapon is a separate, inset splinter of jagged purple-pink Yahn crystal. This alien gemstone is incredibly hard, nearly indestructible, and glows with strange internal fires that allow the gem to warp space/time.

The Star Edge is functions as a +6 anchoring, phase-locking psycho-cutter. The weapon's psycho-cutter special functions can be used at will. These effects are considered a 10th level (epic) spell, and are all cast at the weapon's CL 25th.

While wielding the Star Edge, the character is considered to be wearing armor with the Space Suit property, as the Star Edge generates a short range, life supporting aura resembling purple-pink mist.

Destruction

Destroying a Star Edge requires the clever use of a dimensional rift or space-time anomaly. Only crushing the weapon in the collapsing event horizon of a black hole or in a broken pocket-reality will truly destroy it.

CONSUMABLE ARTIFACTS

(Cn) indicates a Consumable item

Black Oil Amphora (Cn)

Common Minor Artifact

Aura strong transmutation CL 21st

Slot none Weight 2 lbs

Often found in ancient, pre-Psyren ruins, these long, elegant vases are made of a grayish-green ceramic material. Inside is a viscous black gelatin that shimmers wetly in the light and tingles where it touches the skin.

Anyone drinking the contents of the amphora is permanently mutated. The character must succeed at a DC 21 FORT Save or suffer 1d6 points of permanent WIS drain and have their alignment shift one step towards lawful neutral. Success indicates the character only suffers

1 point of permanent WIS drain. The character gains a randomly chosen natural ability from the Beast Shape III list. The mutation is obvious, as the body is dramatically changed and deformed by the change.

Destruction

The black oil can be poured out or boiled away to destroy it, but is considered a dangerous pathogen on most worlds, and must be disposed of in accordance with local environmental regs concerning dangerous xeno-tech.

Machine Soul Emerald (Cn)

Common Minor Artifact

Aura strong transmutation CL 18th

Slot head Weight negligible

This tiny sliver of emerald-like stone is laser-cut into a precise spindle and glows with a vibrant green internal light. When the Machine Soul Emerald is placed on the forehead of any Construct or creature with the following subtypes (android, Battlechanger, cyborg, mecha, POETICA or robot) who has an INT score of at least 3, it permanently bonds to the creature. The gem permanently occupies the head magic item slot, and cannot be removed from the creature.

The creature gains a +4 inherent bonus to its INT and WIS scores and a +1 inherent bonus to its CHA score. The creature gains Telepathy 500 ft, but only with creatures that have one of the above subtypes.

The creature can cast make whole or repair construct once per day.

Destruction

Upon the host creature's destruction, the Machine Soul Emerald is also lost, though if the creature is returned to life by any means within 24 hours, the Machine Soul Emerald is regained. The Machine Soul Emerald cannot be otherwise targeted apart from the host's body.

Shard of a Singularity (Cn)

Rare Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming enchantment CL 35th

Slot none Weight none

The Shard of a Singularity is a jagged rift in reality that somewhat resembles a long, broken shard of mirror-glass. Even though a Shard of a Singularity can be touched, carried, and felt (and can even cut flesh as if it were truly glass) it has absolutely no mass, and no physical presence. It is completely undetectable by machines and high tech sensors, and is invisible to all senses save the direct experiences of a living being. (It can be perceived by the artificial eyes of a cyborg or self-aware AI, it should be Craft, Disable Device or Linguistics, and these skills become class skills for the character. The character gains Skill Focus in his three highest ranked Craft skills.

Destruction

A Shard of the Singularity cannot be destroyed, or even meaningfully interacted with in any way beyond the choice to unleash its power either selfishly or altruistically.

Starship Seed (Cn)

Uncommon Minor Artifact

Aura strong conjuration CL 20th

Slot none Price 50+ million gp and up

Weight 6-8 lbs per seed

Starship Seeds are hotly contested, highly sought after natural resources, and many of the galaxy's Ship Forests have been clearcut as a result. Immature Starship Seeds are rough, knobby red and yellow fruit about the size and weight of a big pineapple.

When planted several feet deep in fertile soil, the Starship Seed slowly grows into a functioning bio-tech starship. This starship is bio-tech nightmare of gnarled, radiation proof bark and airtight cellulose, more than capable of surviving the rigors of space and synthesizing starlight and cosmic radiation to produce energy and atmosphere.

Select any medium-weight starship available of up to size Colossal in the campaign; the Starship Seed has similar capabilities, despite its organic, grown appearance. The Starship Seed can duplicate up to PL 7 technology, if those technology groupings are used in your campaign.

It requires one day per 10,000 gp of the starship's purchase price for the Starship Seed to grow into a viable vessel. During the process, the grower must succeed at 2d6 DC 20 Survival checks. Failure on more than half these checks means the seed dies and no starship is produced. Failure of less than half the checks means the grown starships lacks several auxiliary features common to the base starship, such as weapons, comms systems or tractor beams, as chosen by the game master. The grower can substitute a Profession (farmer) or similar check at no penalty.

Destruction

Can it destroy a pineapple or a watermelon? Than it can destroy a Starship Seed the same way.

noted, as well as by similar artificial senses linked to a living consciousness.)

The Shard of a Singularity can be used in one of two ways.

Altruistically

If used altruistically, it acts as technological singularity, affecting the species of the creature who wields it.

Selfishly

If used selfishly, it provides the user with a +8 inherent bonus to his or her INT score. All bonus skill ranks from this intelligence increase must be placed in Computer Use,

Stepping Stone (Cn)

Uncommon Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming conjuration CL 30th

Slot none Weight 60 lbs

A Stepping Stone is a gleaming gold and onyx polyhedron with 68 facets, just small enough to be held in a strong man's outstretched hands. Relics of ancient alien empires, a single Stepping Stone can totally transform a planet's culture and technological infrastructure.

The Stepping Stone can only be activated on a world with an existing high-tech infrastructure, including power networks and some form of planet-wide communication network. The Stepping Stone inserts itself seamlessly into existing infrastructure. Activating the Stepping Stone requires 2d6 successful DC 35 Computer Use and Knowledge (physical sciences) checks each made over the course of at least 24 hours. Failure on any of the checks prevents activation for at least 48 hours.

If all checks are successful, the Stepping Stone activates, and conjures a planet-wide stepping booth network which seamlessly integrates with existing technology and architecture. Multiple stepping booth facilities appear in any city with a population of at least one million, and every settlement with a population of at least 20,000 gains its own stepping booth facility. Controls and operating protocol are in the language of, and follow the conventions of, the region's dominant culture.

Destruction

A Stepping Stone can only be destroyed if the device is teleported via an existing stepping booth network, however the attempt to teleport the Stepping Stone causes a multi-megaton atomic detonation at both the departure and arrival sites. These explosions inflict 100d6 points of energy damage (not subject to resistance or immunity) to everything within a 10 kilometer radius and render these areas intensely radioactive for 3d6 months.

World Maker (Cn)

Common Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming transmutation CL incalculable

Slot none Weight 500 lbs

Several World Maker torpedoes are rumored to exist, ancient relics of some lost super-culture. Each World Maker is a bullet-shaped projectile taller than a man and weighing about 500 lbs. World Makers are forged from some ultra-durable golden alloy, their surface cut with complex geometric patterns, which form spires and canyons on the projectile's surface. The World Maker's patterns and component arrangement seems to change slowly as you watch, and the device's inner mechanisms define categorization.

When fired from a starship's torpedo tube and targeting a planet, asteroid or moon, at least 50 miles in diameter, the World Maker radically reconfigures the planet. A tidal wave of energy sweeps across the planet's surface, utterly destroying anyone or anything it comes into contact with. It requires less than a minute for the energy wave to sweep the target planet, scouring it down to magma and molten rock.

Over the next hour, the target planet changes mass, ending as a world about 25% greater mass than Earth's, a nitrogen/oxygen atmosphere and 1 to 1.25 G gravity. Temperature and climate are roughly Earth-like, though may vary slightly due to the world's distance from its star. Plant life develops from single-celled organisms and algae to old growth forests and jungle over the course of another hour. Native animal species evolve over the course of the world's first day. By the time 48 hours has elapsed, a stable ecosystem has evolved.

Destruction

Firing the World Maker into a main-sequence yellow or orange star will destroy it, though doing so will cause dangerous radiation storms, solar flares and EMP bursts for months. Firing the World Maker into a larger, hotter star or other stellar phenomena, such as a singularity, will likely destroy the World Maker with minimal cosmic upheaval. Firing the World Maker into a smaller or cooler star will only initiate the maker-reaction; transforming the star into a 'rogue' planet.

ARTIFACT WONDROUS ITEMS

The Archimedes

Unique Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming transmutation CL 30th

Slot none Price xx gp (DC) Weight several million tons-ultra heavy capitol ship

The Archimedes is a massive and truly ancient starship, a rough crescent of dull hull-metal with the mass of a small moon. Probably of pre-Diaspora Shipper manufacture, the Archimedes is engineered with technology all but unknown in modern times, technology that is difficult to analyze or understand and all but impossible to reverse engineer. The Archimedes is known for its gravity warping tow system and nearly limitless-capacity power plant, that allows the vessel to drag even planetary masses into new orbits.

Personality and Attributes

The Archimedes is controlled by a ship-master AI, a stern and serious intelligence that accepts address simply as "Ship". Ship is a taciturn LN overseer, concerned only with the smooth functioning of the starship that is his body and the efficient towing of worlds. Ship will only ever initiate a contest of wills if the vessel itself is in danger, or if a badly planned tow would result in the unplanned destruction of inhabited worlds. However, Ship lacks moral compunctions, and if a planet-tow is intended to place an inhabited world in unstable and terminal orbit, Ship will assist. The AI does not object to being used as a weapon, but refuses to be the cause of a stellar accident, as a point of professional pride. Sometimes, the vessel will override the captain's wishes and place a towed world into a safe, but unexpected new orbit, or refuse a planet-tow entirely.

Ship has no great love for any organic species, but does have a grudging, almost paternal regard for Shippers. However, the AI is continually disappointed with what the modern Shipper species has become, and spares no feelings in telling modern Shippers so.

If the Ship wins a struggle for dominance, it attempts to force the crew into life pods and eject them near a settled system, before warping out to an unknown location and going into dormancy while awaiting discovery by a new crew. If not possible to eject the crew safely, the Ship will vent large areas of itself to space, spacing any crew it is in direct conflict with.

It normally requires a duty section numbering in the millions to pilot the Archimedes, but with Ship's assistance, the vessel can run at near full efficiency with a skeleton crew of 5,000 – 10,000 skilled spacers. The vessel can operate, at a basic level (ie: no combat maneuvering or independent targeting) with a single captain, assuming Ship assists as needed.

The Ship has an INT 20 WIS 20 and CHA 10. Ship has an Ego score of 30.

Senses

The Archimedes has all the sensors that would be expected of a starship of its size, including a suite of galaxy-range, FTL communication ansibles and multiple advanced sensors.

Every inch of the starship's interior is covered by infrared cameras and microphones: Ship is aware of all activities within itself. Crew and passengers can address the Ship AI from any point onboard, without the necessity of typing commands at a workstation and expect a response.

Abilities

The Archimedes is a capitol class starship with accommodation for a crew of several million. Vast internal spaces are dedicated to computer-managed farmland, hydroponics gardens and waste reclamation facilities to help feed a crew that size.

The vessel's cargo capacity is nearly incalculable. Some of the largest holds have internal volumes greater than that of some of the smaller Hawaiian Islands. Internal monorails, a ship-centric stepping booth network and vast pneumatic elevator systems allow for rapid internal transit.

The vessel's damage dealing capability is mostly average for a craft of its size: several hundred banks of particle beams and photon torpedoes spaced equidistantly around the hull. The vessel is capable of relatively slow FTL travel: it's travel times are roughly 40% as swift as the fastest starships in your campaign, due to its bulk and power requirements.

The Archimedes can use the sculpt planetary orbit spell to tow celestial bodies effectively at will. The Ship AI can provide a +20 competence bonus on Knowledge (physical sciences) checks to place a towed world into a stable new orbit. However, after a planet-tow, the gravity based tow engines shut down for a period of time based on the towed world's mass. Shutdown tow engines can be rebooted with a DC 50 Craft (starship) check, requiring at least a week of effort.

Planetary Mass	Tow System Shutdown Duration
Earth-like mass or less	Shutdown 1d4 days
Planet is up to 50x Earth's mass	Shutdown 1d4 weeks
Planet is 50-100x Earth's mass	Shutdown 2d6 months
Planet is Jupiter sized or larger	Shutdown 1d6 years

Destruction

The Archimedes is a durable, ancient vessel with a top flight self repair system. It is virtually impossible to destroy: even if a full stellar armada rained nukes down on it for hours, the damage might not finish the ancient vessel. Chances are, the Archimedes would simply warp out, find somewhere to perform orbital drydock on itself, and find its way back into history decades or centuries after the unsuccessful assault.

Perhaps the only way to permanently destroy the Archimedes would require steering the vessel directly into the heart of a sun or the depths of a black hole via a badly targeted FTL jump. Doing so would require either tricking the hyper-intelligent Ship AI into plotting a suicidal course, or perhaps more difficult, convincing the AI to willingly suicide.

Childhood's End

Unique Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming (all schools) CL effectively infinite
Slot none Weight 50,000 tons (subjective)

This mathematically perfect sphere is only the size of a big marble, but so dense there is a palpable sense of impossible mass. The sphere is a bruised vermilion like a bruised sky at sunset; the sphere is not quite matter and not quite energy. It is tangible dark matter of incredible density. The sphere hovers about 3 meters from ground level at all times, and if enough force is exerted to move it, it glides with stately grace.

Childhood's End is an ancient artifact, likely older than the current universe. The tiny, ultra-dense sphere figures in the legends of a million-plus worlds. Its movements through out the universe cannot be predicted, though sometimes its movement can be influenced. Cultists of the sphere practice arcane rituals, schemes planned out down through the centuries, in hopes of bringing Childhood's End to their world.

When Childhood's End arrives on a planet, it sparks a radical evolution of the world and its inhabitants. All living creatures on the world, including members of the Animal, Vermin and Ooze types, receive a +2 enhancement bonus to their INT scores. Humanoid, tool using creatures on the world gain the inspiration to progress to the next higher Progress Level in terms of technology; this change is not instant. The world's inventors are inspired, but it will take years of trial and error (at best) to perfect and disseminate new technology.

Childhood's End has other effects, which are less predictable, upon the transformed populace of the world. Depending on your perspective, these changes may either be blessings or curses. There is a percentile chance of any or all of the following changes occurring after a visit from Childhood's End. These changes only affect future children born on the world, or children in utero when the uplift occurs. Any, all or none of these additional changes might occur.

All children born to the world's dominant humanoid species (or multiple competing species)...

- Gain the Psionic subtype.....75%
- Gain Telepathy 100 ft.... 65%
- Gain the Lifespawn subtype and the Awakened Heritage (Choir, Mother, Genesis or Senate).... 50%

- Gain a new sensory mode (equal chance of lowlight vision, Darkvision 60 ft, Blindsense 20 ft, Scent)....45%
- Those children with CHA scores of 11+ gain the ability to cast 3 specific first or zero level spells from at least two different schools of magic as spell like abilities, once each per day.... 25%
- Are born with three or more genders rather than the expected two....30%
- Are born invariably Lawful Good or Neutral Good...30%
- Cease aging once they reach the Adult age category....10%
- Physically die when they reach puberty, but transfigure spiritually into immortal, ghostlike beings of pure intellect and psionic power.... 1%

A species can be visited by Childhood's End only once during its history. The strange orb remains on a world for about a year, before teleporting to another world. Massive, planet-wide storms and odd weather herald both the sphere's arrival and its eventual departure.

Destruction

Nobody has a clue how to destroy this thing, and given that it means eventual planetary extinction for about 1 out of every 100 planets it visits, many species have tried to annihilate Childhood's End over the aeons. The current 'best guess' is that to break Childhood's End, you'd have to either fundamentally rewrite the laws of the universe, completely unbind the Weak Force (which would pretty much destroy all life everywhere and everywhen in the process).

The other theory is you'd have to destroy every species ever uplifted by the sphere, and their descendants. There's a lot of species that have a problem with that approach, perhaps most dangerously, the Psyren, who owe their origin and powers to the great, dark sphere.

Knight Instance Module

Common Minor Artifact

Aura strong universal CL 20th

Slot none Weight 2 lbs

Knight Instance Modules (KIMs) are grape-sized, ebony, plastic spheres with a single glowing red display light that pulses rhythmically. These devices contain a copy of a powerful, widely distributed AI specialized in vehicle control and maneuverability. The high-level AI codenamed Knight has been installed in thousands of vehicles throughout the galaxy, and each KIM contains an individual copy of its core programming (an instance).

If installed in any vehicle, mecha or suit of powered armor, nanite foundries within the KIM come online, and rebuild the host vehicle as a sleek, stealth-configured ebony prototype. A crimson scanner pulses rhythmically as the advanced AI uses the host vehicle's sensor package to scan the environment.

It requires 24 hours for a newly installed KIM to integrate with its vehicular host, and complete the transformation. When the transformation is complete, the vehicle, mecha or powered armor's Hardness increases by 5 and its HP increases by 20% (rounded down).

The KIM-linked vehicle is attuned to a particular driver or pilot, and will not function for another driver or pilot. When piloted by its designated user, both the KIM and the pilot make separate Initiative checks and use the better of the two rolls; the KIM is considered to have a +8 modifier to Initiative.

The KIM-linked vehicle can pilot itself and activate all functions on its own initiative. In the case of powered armor or mecha, the KIM is considered to have a base attack bonus equal to its pilot, if operating independently.

The KIM provides its designated pilot with Weapon Focus with one integrated weapon system of choice (if present), as well as a +8 competence bonus on Drive or Pilot checks with the linked vehicle (or Acrobatics or Fly checks in the case of powered armor or mecha.)

If a KIM-linked vehicle survives its pilots demise, it can act independently, and may designate a new pilot of its choice after a month elapses.

Personality and Attributes

The KIM is a stoic and professional LN intelligence with a bit of a snarky, sarcastic streak. The KIM will rarely initiate a struggle for dominance against its driver or pilot, only trying to take control if its vehicle host is threatened or if the driver or pilot is incapacitated behind the wheel. The KIM is vaguely hostile to other instances of its AI code, and encourages its pilot to destroy rival KIM AI whenever possible- a dramatic departure from its usual crisply professional demeanor. The KIM intelligence will reluctantly work with rival AI of its type if its pilot considers the rival vital to the current mission, or if the rival AI has similar goals or can be of obvious use.

The KIM has 14 INT, 12 WIS and 12 CHA, as well as an Ego score of 18.

Senses

The Knight Instance Module has blindsight 30 ft in its inactive state, can perceive unencrypted wifi/radio/television signals and in can communicate vocally or wirelessly in this state. When installed in a vehicle, the KIM has access to all the vehicle's sensors and communication systems. The KIM can speak English, Spanish, Russian, Japanese and several other common Earth languages.

The KIM can sense the distance and direction to all other KIM-linked vehicles within a 100 mile radius. The KIM-linked vehicle receives a +2 competence bonus on attack rolls against other vehicles with a similar system installed.

Destruction

A Knight Instance Module can be removed from a vehicle with a DC 25 Craft (electronics) check. Outside a host vehicle, the KIM has Hardness 8 and 25 HP, and can be destroyed relatively easily. Similarly, if a KIM-linked vehicle is reduced to -10 HP or fewer, the onboard KIM is destroyed with the vehicle.

Observatorus Gate

Uncommon Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming divination CL 25th

Slot none Weight architectural feature – several hundred tons

This massive device always found in a perfectly spherical chamber 300 ft in diameter with ribbed walls of wet black stone. The Observatorus Gate consists of a massive black couch on a rotating ebony steel dais. A huge device, similar in form to an observatory's largest telescope looms over the couch; the two components, couch and telescope rotate as one unit on the dais. Everything is made of cold black steel carved in vaguely organic low relief.

The Observatorus Gate can only be activated by some one who lays on the couch while wearing a set of Star Jockey Armor and wills the device to function. The Observatorus Gate can be activated up to three times per day. Each time it is activated, it may perform any of the following functions.

- Duplicate the effect of any single Divination spell of 9th level or lower
- Teleport the operator and all creatures within the chamber to another planet as by Interplanetary Teleportation
- Teleport the operator and all creatures within the chamber to either the Astral Plane or any Elemental Plane

Destruction

The Observatorus Gate is can be set to self destruct by a user wearing Star Jokey Armor. Doing so requires the user to solve a complex, five-dimensional mental puzzle by succeeding at a DC 40 Knowledge (physical sciences) or Knowledge (the planes) check. This check requires 1d4 hours of uninterrupted concentration to complete, and if the check fails or is interrupted, the self destruct feature is locked out for 96 hours.

The self destruct completely destroys the Gate, and all creatures and objects within 30 ft suffer 20d6 points of unspecified energy damage. Anything destroyed by this energy is completely obliterated, as per disintegrate, leaving a perfectly spherical aperture.

Oxygen Reactor

Uncommon Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming evocation and transmutation CL 40th

Slot none Weight architectural feature- several thousand or million tons!

During the height of their empire, the Psyren race created oxygen reactors on several lifeless, arid worlds, including Earth's neighbor, Mars. When activated, these massive devices create a breathable, oxygenated atmosphere from nothing, making even the harshest world habitable by Earthborn humans and Psyren alike. Many of these wondrous devices were lost forever when the Psyren empire fell, including the as-yet-undiscovered facility buried beneath the Martian sands.

Oxygen Reactors are massive devices found at the very bottom of huge Psyren facilities carved out of planetary rock. Many are buried several miles below the surface, in structures resembling inverted pyramids, often protected by magi-tech traps and robotic guardians.

The Oxygen Reactor is a steel pylon about four feet high, with an indentation atop shaped roughly like a humanoid hand. By placing her hand in the depression, a character can will the device to activate. Doing so requires a DC 28 WILL Save. Success means the device successfully activates. Failure means the device fails to function for 24 hours.

Failure by 5 or more points indicates the Oxygen Reactor melts down, detonating like a hundred megaton nuclear weapon- utterly destroying the facility and everything within 10 miles, and devastating everything within a 50 mile radius, after a one minute build-up to detonation. An additional DC 40 WILL Save during this time stops the nuke from detonating and activates the Oxygen Reactor.

Once the Oxygen Reactor activates, it generates hurricane-force winds (see wind dangers in the PFRPG) within 100 miles, and less intense winds everywhere on the planet for 1d4 days. After this time, the weather conditions settle down to normal, and the planet gains a breathable, oxygenated atmosphere, regardless of previous conditions.

Once activated, the Oxygen Reactor continues to function as a high-end fusion power plant indefinitely.

Shaping Spindle

Unique Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming universal CL 50th

Slot none Weight 2.5 tons (weight/mass usually negated)

The Shaping Spindle is always found drifting somewhere in the far depths of space, usually by a crew that has no idea what it is they've discovered. The Shaping Spindle is an enigma, likely a broken remnant of prior iteration of the Multiverse. When the Shaping Spindle is quiet, it is an elongated diamond whose twin vertices narrow to needle thin-ness. What material it is composed of is unknown: its surface is an intense cerulean-blue which bubbles and flows like agitated water, yet is always solid and unyielding to the touch.

Sometimes the Shaping Spindle takes other forms: an inverted, always fluxing concavity, a sphere, a cube, a mobius loop. The Shaping Spindle has enormous mass, yet it hovers weightlessly just a fraction of an inch above a supporting surface. Even a single sheet of paper can lift the Spindle, as if it were a steel platform lifted by an industrial machine.

The Shaping Spindle can make thoughts a reality, yet which thoughts it chooses to make manifest are extremely random and unpredictable. Every 3d6x10 hours, the Shaping Spindle makes manifest the thoughts of a creature within 100 ft of it; this ability functions through all mundane and magical barriers, as long as the creature and the Spindle are on the same plane of reality.

The creature 'chosen' by the Spindle must succeed at a DC 30 WILL Save. If he or she succeeds, the Shaping Spindle manifests a chance in reality equivalent to limited wish. If the creature beats DC 40, this acts as wish instead. These wishes are always fulfilled in the most basic, direct manner possible, always in a way that corresponds to the 'user's' deeply rooted instincts and desires.

If the WILL Save fails, the Spindle manifests 1d3 Phantasmal Killer effects drawn from the user's subconscious fears. These creatures target the user and

The Shaping Spindle's Choice (d10)

1- Chooses the creature within range with the highest WILL Save modifier	2- Chooses the creature within range with the lowest WILL Save modifier
3- Chooses the creature within range with the highest INT score	4- Chooses the creature within range with the lowest INT score above 3
5- chooses of the same race but as diametrically opposed an alignment as possible	6- Chooses the last creature who has succumbed to a mind-affecting ability
7- chooses a creature with as close to a matching STR score to the last user as possible	8- chooses a creature of the same gender and patron deity as the last user if possible
9- chooses a creature with the same class but a different patron deity than the last user if possible	10- chooses a creature of the same class but a different race than the last user if possible

Destruction

Your guess is as good as mine. Even wishing the Shaping Spindle gone forever merely shunts it elsewhere in the Multiverse. There's indications that the Shaping Spindle has survived the destruction and recreation of the Multiverse itself on at least three separate occasions. If there is any artifact that is truly an eternal, cross-reality constant, it is the Shaping Spindle.

Spacelord's Chakra Gem

Uncommon Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming transmutation CL 30th

Slot headband Weight negligible

Thousands of these diamond cut blood red, cat's eye or onyx gems once decorated the crowns of galactic emperors and space-kings. Now, the ancient empires that once worshipped these hot-to-the-touch gems are long forgotten but the gems themselves remain. Powerful, awaiting a new master (or mistress) to unlock their long-dormant power.

By pressing a Spacelord's Chakra Gem to the crown chakra (the center of the forehead), a character unlocks its power. The gem burrows into the flesh, becoming one. It cannot be removed while the wearer lives. The wearer's appearance changes dramatically, their skin taking on a lurid blue hue. Blood red veins stand out on their chest and biceps when they are angry or aroused. Their eyes become jet black pits.

Implanting a Spacelord's Chakra Gem provides the character with a permanent +3 enhancement bonus to their STR, DEX and CHA scores. The character gains the Wild Talent feat as a racial bonus feat (or Psionic Talent instead if they already possess a power point reserve.)

The character gains Telepathy with a 100 ft radius and gains Darkvision with a 60 ft radius (or improves existing Darkvision by +60 ft).

Once per day, the gem's wearer can expend their psionic focus as an immediate action to generate a powerful forcefield around their body. This forcefield provides the wearer with 100 temporary HP, which are lost first. The forcefield remains in place for 1 minute or until destroyed.

Destruction

The Spacelord's Chakra Gem can only be destroyed if it is removed from the skull of a slain host first. The gem is especially fragile for about an hour after the host's destruction and can simply be crushed to powder. In this state, the gem has Hardness 5 and 25 HP. Otherwise, the gemstone is nearly invulnerable.

Tacticus

Rare Major Artifact

Aura overwhelming divination CL 25th

Slot none Weight 1,200 lbs

The Tacticus is a translucent cerulean sphere with a circumference greater than a tall man's outstretched arms. It floats several feet above the floor at all times, slowly rotating. The Tacticus projects a vague suggestion a starscape around itself, and within the sphere, an intricate and multilayered holographic display tracks the positions of every star, planet, moon, celestial body and starship larger than a single-seater workpod in real time.

The Tacticus provides the user with a constant system scan effect focusing on their present star system. In addition, if the Tacticus is consulted, it provides a +10 equipment bonus on all Knowledge checks concerning the star system. If the Tacticus is transported to another star system, it requires 24 hours to begin functioning.

Destruction

The Tacticus rips itself apart in an explosion of liquid blue illumination if the star system it is scanning is affected by a black hole, either naturally or artificially induced, including via the use of the event horizon epic spell or similar effects.
